

Find Lost Plane In Bahamas; Injured Sighted Indians Win Baseball Playoff

Defeat Red Sox 8-3; Boudreau Hits 2 Homers

BOSTON (CP)—Cleveland Indians won the American League baseball pennant this afternoon, trouncing Boston Red Sox 8 to 3 in the only playoff of American League history.

A pair of homers by manager Lou Boudreau and a three-run circuit clout by Ken Keltner did the trick.

The Indians will meet Boston Braves in the first game of the world series at Braves' Field Wednesday.

Southpaw Gene Bearden, pitching with only one full day of rest after shutting out Detroit Saturday, tamed the Red Sox with a five-hitter in their own ball yard. It was the 20th win over the season for the 28-year-old rookie from Oakland of the Pacific Coast League and his seventh straight.

Boudreau, the hitting and fielding leader of his team all season, led them to their first pennant since 1920 with a terrific batting day. The Indians' manager hit two homers and two singles in the attack on loser Denny Galehouse and Ellis Kinder. He also drew an intentional walk.

Thus the Cleveland Club, which held to a two-game lead as late as Thursday morning and then fell into a tie on the closing day of the season, finally beat off the stubborn Red Sox at their own game—the home run.

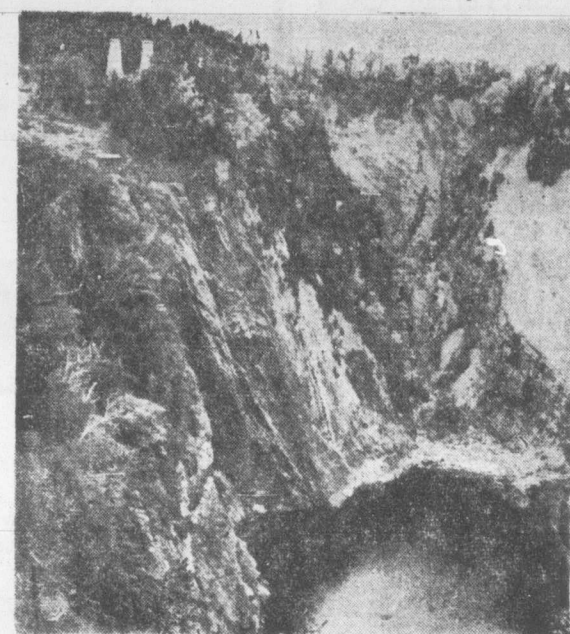

Line score—
Cleveland—100 410 011—8
Boston—100 002 000—3

Big Storm Brewing In Caribbean Sea

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—South-east storm warnings were hoisted today from Miami southward over the Florida keys and to Fort Myers, Fla., as a tropical storm developed in the Caribbean Sea.

Highest winds reported were 50 miles an hour in squalls, but weather bureau storm forecasters were concerned because of its swift development and a critical flood situation in South Florida.

Lack Of Summer Rain Dries Up Falls

The unusual sight is seen of the 274-foot Montmorency Falls in Quebec province run dry. Most of the water from the river which feeds the falls is diverted for Quebec City power. Bone-dry is the face of the falls and only a pool of water remains at its foot. The drying-up has not affected the power supply and there is no shortage of electricity in the area.

Russia To Confine Envoys To Moscow's City Limits

WASHINGTON (AP)—Russia has issued new travel restrictions which in effect confine foreign diplomats to the Moscow city limits, the United States State Department said today.

The restrictions apply to travels in the Soviet Union by staff members of foreign missions and consulates, the department said. They were issued last Thursday.

The department said news reports about the new order, filed by American correspondents in Moscow, have been held up by a Soviet censor.

The new Soviet order was described as a supplement to regulations issued May 16, 1941.

The department said that "for all practical purposes the list of forbidden localities covers the entire territory of the U.S.S.R."

Higher Bus Fares Now Being Paid

Increased bus fares went into effect Sunday and B.C. Electric transportation department officials report the change-over was carried out with little confusion.

"It was most gratifying. Most people were acquainted with the new rates," a spokesman said.

The revised fare structure was approved recently by the Public Utilities Commission. It sets the price of four tickets at 30 cents, up five cents; single cash fares at 10 cents, up three cents, and the weekly pass at $1.35, up 35 cents.

It is understood out-of-town fares on Vancouver Island Coach Lines buses will be boosted a week today.

Western Powers Reject Red Plan For Berlin Talk

PARIS (CP)—A French official said tonight the western powers have determined not to take the Berlin crisis to the Big Four council of foreign ministers so long as Russia keeps on blockading Berlin.

A note from Moscow received early today demanded resumption of Big Four talks on Berlin and Germany. Foreign Ministers of Britain, France and the United States met for more than two hours this afternoon and discussed the note. While they met, other big power representatives were arguing in the Security Council the question whether the Berlin problem is to go before the United Nations.

COUNCIL DEBATE

There was no official announcement as to what the Foreign Ministers had decided, but in the Security Council the Russians fought hard to keep Berlin off the agenda, while the United States and Britain declared it should go on.

Andrei Vishinsky, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, declared the western demand for United Nations consideration of the dispute was "devoid of any ground, as it does not fall within the scope of the Security Council."

The issue, he said, should be sent to the Big Four council of foreign ministers, as the formal note from Moscow had proposed earlier today.

SAYS CHARTER BAR

Vishinsky declared the United Nations' Charter forbids the Council to discuss anything concerning Germany until the four occupying powers have written a peace treaty for the country.

Victorian, One Other Accused Of Trying Hold-up In New York

NEW YORK (AP)—Two Canadian seamen were arrested on charges of attempted robbery today shortly after the clerk of the mid-town Hotel King Edward had been held up.

The men identified themselves as Elbert Conibear, 20, Victoria, B.C., and Gerald Hughes, 20, of Verdun, Que. They told police they were crew members of the steamship Manx Marine.

A hotel telephone operator saw two men approach the clerk and demand money. When the clerk handed over the cash drawer containing about $100, the operator telephoned the police.

Meantime, two guests entered the lobby and the men fled without the money. Detectives subdued them on a street nearby.

Agriculture Minister Kennedy Slated For Ontario Premiership

TORONTO (CP)—The Globe and Mail said today in a front-page story that Agriculture Minister Kennedy will become Ontario Premier within a week.

Hon. T. L. Kennedy was acting premier when Premier Drew, elected Saturday as national leader of the Progressive Conservative Party, was in Europe last summer.

The paper added: "When the change is made, it is expected Mr. Kennedy will call an immediate caucus of government members and candidates who were defeated in the June election to determine if and when a convention is to be held."

"Another step which is believed will be taken without delay will be a conference between the premier-elect and the leaders of the opposition groups—E. B. Joliffe, C.C.F., and Farquhar Oliver, Liberal."

"At this conference, the subject of a session undoubtedly will arise."

B.C. Loggers' Leaders Bolt Ranks Of I.W.A.

VANCOUVER (CP)—Labor strife ripped through British Columbia's $200,000,000 forest products industry today as 40,000 loggers learned their executive had severed all ties with the International Woodworkers of America (I.W.A.).

Cited as a "Communist dominated" group by the president of one of its own locals, the executive of the B.C. division of the huge union Sunday night announced its disaffiliation from the parent body. The move may affect the bargaining powers of the district council.

RADIO ADDRESS

District vice-president Harold Pritchett, chief of the international union from 1937 to 1940, announced the disaffiliation in a radio address, following an executive meeting. He said a new organization, the Woodworkers' Industrial Union of Canada, would be formed.

Pritchett gave as the main reason for the unexpected move Saturday's announcement that 33 of the B.C. district's representatives had been denied entry into the United States because of alleged Communist party affiliations. He said the international union did not protest the action.

THEIR OWN AFFILIATIONS

The resolution for immediate disaffiliation with the I.W.A. emerged from a stormy rally in New Westminster. President Stewart Alsbury of the 5,000-strong New Westminster local, refused to support the move, charging:

"We will not follow a Communist-dominated union. These men (the executive) are not thinking of unionism, but only of their political affiliations."

Loggers To Meet

NANAIMO (CP)—A mass meeting of the International Woodworkers of America (I.W.A.) sub-local here, will be held Thursday to decide what action will be taken on the week-end breakaway from the international body.

TORONTO (CP)—Mayor H. E. McCallum said today power cuts will be made in Toronto on Wednesday and Friday this week and Monday, Wednesday and Friday each succeeding week unless the present hydro-electric power allotment is further reduced.

BERLIN (Reuter)—A British Tudor aircraft was "buzzed" by a Russian Yak fighter this afternoon in the Hamburg-Berlin air corridor. The British chief controller at the Berlin air safety centre has handed a written note of protest to his Soviet opposite number.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A missing charter airline with 21 persons on board has been sighted on a lonely Bahamas island with several injured persons nearby.

A Coast Guard plane which sighted the downed craft on Long Island, said several passengers were walking nearby, beached on the tiny island in the Bahamas chain about 60 miles southeast of Nassau.

"Injuries to personnel appear slight," radioed Lieut. A. P. Copough, pilot of the Coast Guard plane.

Copough reported that survivors waved as he flew overhead and called for water. Several bottles of water were dropped.

Two four-engined planes were ordered to the spot and the U.S. consul at Nassau was asked to get a tug underway for a rescue effort.

Nassau had been the focal point of the air search for the missing plane.

As the hunt began Civil Aeronautics Administration officials listed the plane as owned by the New England Air Express Company of Teterboro, N.J. At that time the C.A.A. said: "Its gasoline is gone and we haven't heard from it for several hours."

The charter airliner, a DC-3, was en route from Teterboro to San Juan, Puerto Rico. It departed from Teterboro at 7:30 p.m.

The C.A.A. said the plane carried 17 passengers and four crew members. Only person identified was the pilot, Richard Roy Oliver of Port Chester, N.Y., president and general manager of the airline.

Seattle Ship With Relief For Alaska Aground Off B.C.

SEATTLE (CP)—The U.S. Coast Guard reported today that the Seattle steamship Southwestern is aground at Kiltik Creek, 295 miles northwest of Vancouver. The vessel does not appear in any danger.

The Southeastern, carrying a load of emergency cargo for Alaska, grounded at 7:30 a.m. She left here Thursday, bound for Ketchikan.

Kiltik Creek on the east coast of Hunter Island on Fitzhugh Sound, some distance due north of Queen Charlotte Sound and the extreme northern tip of Vancouver Island.

Several holes were punched in the vessel's bow but the watertight compartments forward were expected to keep her afloat and her cargo dry.

The vessel is owned by the Briggs Steamship Company of Seattle.

The Straits Towing and Salvage Company of Vancouver, B.C. has sent a tug to the grounding site.

Increases Sought In Saanich Fares

An application now is before the motor carrier division of the Public Utilities Commission to increase the bus fares on the Vancouver Island Coach Lines Ltd. Saanich routes beyond the Greater Victoria transit area.

While the company has proposed that the new fare structure come into effect next week it now appears doubtful that the Public Utilities commission will act on the application in time to have the new fare structure approved by then.

According to officials of the commission the increases asked for fares to Sidney, Brentwood and other Saanich points beyond the Greater Victoria transit area are commensurate with those already granted the company and the B.C. Electric Railway Co. Ltd. for the Greater Victoria transit area and the Vancouver Island Coach Lines Ltd. long-line routes.

Ukrainian At U.N. Offers Proof Of Reds' Atom Bomb

PARIS (CP)—Dimitri Manuilsky, Foreign Minister of the Soviet Ukraine, today continued Russia's hinting that the Soviet has an atomic bomb by saying he is prepared to show "proof" the weapon is not a United States monopoly.

"If necessary, we will bring these proofs, which will be uncomfortable to those who think they have the upper hand," he told the United Nations' General Assembly's political committee.

The committee was debating Russian compromise proposals, put forward Saturday by Andrei Vishinsky, Russian Deputy Foreign Minister, which asked that:

1. Existing atom bombs be destroyed and future production be outlawed;

2. An international treaty setting up control of atomic energy should go into effect at the same time.

Manuilsky completely rejected the machinery for international control proposed by the United States and backed by the western members of the United Nations' Atomic Energy Commission. He pleaded for adoption of the Russian proposals.

He scorched Canada for backing the commission's majority report. He said the Canadian draft resolution signifies "the continuation and the strengthening of the deadlock" which he charged had been caused by the "stubbornness" of the Anglo-American bloc.

MRS. KASENKINA TELLS ALL Installment 8

I See My Husband For Last Time

(In today's installment of her moving story, Mrs. Kasenkina continues her account of the seizure of her husband, Demyan, by the secret police and tells of her frantic but futile attempts to free him. She describes the scene outside the prison, and of Demyan's sentence and her fears.)

By
Oksana S. Kasenkina

(Edited by ISAAC DON LEVINE and Copyright, 1948, by King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

MY BOY Oleg woke up while the NKVD officers were conducting their search, turning everything in our rooms topsy-turvy. They dug up our nest-egg, 1,200 rubles (roughly $600), the accumulation of our years of teaching in and out of regular hours and seasons, but they found nothing of a political nature that would incriminate my husband. Nevertheless, they ordered him to get ready to go with them.

"Do you know whom you are taking away?" my boy burst out. "My papa is an honest teacher and never did any wrong!"

"Shut up, you milkop," the NKVD leader bellowed, "or we'll go after you, too."

I tried to shame the men. "Stop and think what you are doing, grabbing innocent people, your own kind!" They laughed and told me to hold my tongue. Then they handed me a paper to sign, that the search had been properly conducted. I scrawled my signature on it. Although it was springtime, I gave my Demyan a heavy overcoat to take along. He was at first inclined to take it and tried to reassure us, but I had a premonition of evil.

"It's all a misunderstanding," Demyan said as he was bidding us goodbye. "I'm sure it will be cleared up and I will return soon." They led him away.

Many Were Seized

AT DAWN, at 6 o'clock that morning, I was already at the headquarters of the NKVD. How shocked I was to find a whole column of women outside the building, some of them weeping, all there to inquire for a husband or brother or son who had been seized in the night.

No one was admitted. "There's no use waiting," the guard kept repeating to the anxious line. "There'll be no information to day. Go home."

After a while the women dispersed. I remained and stuck to my place.

GIVE . . . Your Community Chest Needs $180,000 . . . GIVE!

Chest Campaign Under Way Today, Canvassers Busy

Victoria's 1948 Community Chest campaign got away to a good start today with canvassers out early this morning in almost every district.

The campaign had its official send off Saturday afternoon at a brief ceremony on the steps of the City Hall. Taking part were Mayor Percy George, reeves of the surrounding municipalities, Walter Walker, co-chairman of the campaign, and little Judy MacCormac, who was "Miss Victoria."

"I am one of the lucky children in Victoria," Judy told the crowd of spectators over a public address system. "I have a Mommy and a Daddy and a home. There are lots and lots of other boys and girls who are unlucky, though, and who need the Community Chest to take care of them."

Mayor George, as representative of all Greater Victoria citizens, accepted a Red Feather challenge made to him by Mr. Walker. He said he was confident the citizens of this area would put the campaign over the top.

The campaign will run until Oct. 23. Objective of the drive is $180,000.

WHEAT IN STORE HIGHER

OTTAWA (CP) — Stocks of Canadian wheat in store or in transit in North America at midnight, Sept. 23, totalled 149,254,711 bushels, compared with 126,121,323 at Sept. 16 and 105,775,379 at Sept. 23 last year, the Bureau of Statistics reported during the week-end.

Deliveries from farms in the prairie provinces during the week totalled 27,549,617 bushels, against 34,480,088 during the preceding week.

Kasenkina

Advised To Marry Again

"I won't leave here until I see the head man himself," I boldly declared over and over again, defying arrest.

"Who are you and what do you want?" I was finally asked by the guard.

"I won't tell you—I want to see the head man." One of the commanding officers of the NKVD eventually became aware of my argument with the guard, and I heard him say: "A brave woman. Who is she?" I gave the guard my name.

"Kasenkina, eh?" he greeted me as I was ushered into the presence of the head man. "You want to know about your husband? A cultured man. He was no trouble at all. He already signed a paper, confessing to everything."

"Allow me to say to you that you are lying," I retorted quickly. "Demyan never confessed to anything, because he is not a criminal, and I don't believe that he ever signed such a paper. And if he is a criminal, why don't you put him on trial, why don't you let me see the charges against him? What is it all about, this hounding of an honest teacher?" "Forget your husband," the NKVD man advised with a mocking smile. "He's an enemy of the people. And you're a good teacher. Your father is a railroad man. Stop seeking interviews, and forget your husband. He's already been shipped to Artemovsk. And you've still got your looks. Go and marry another man."

Artemovsk, formerly known as Bakhmut, was some 50 miles away from our town. In the course of the next three weeks

I make three separate trips to the Artemovsk prison. I learned that after filing an application there one had to wait for one's turn in alphabetical order. Our initial "K" would not be reached for quite a while, I was told, so enormous was the NKVD catch.

Sent To Far East

My second trip to Artemovsk, in an effort to visit Demyan or to learn something about his fate, was also futile. I discovered that it would take four days before all the sentences of those with the initial "K" were announced. On my third visit I brought a bundle of linen for Demyan, but the jailers refused to accept it.

"Away with you. It won't be needed," a guard shouted at me. My heart sank. There was bedlam in the prison waiting room, most filled with screaming and wailing women. Then there would be a hush when the announcer came in to read out: "So-and-so, dead. So-and-so to the Narym Camps. So-and-so in the hospital. So-and-so to an isolation camp."

After an interminable period, I heard him say: "Demyan Nikitich Kasenkin—to the Far Eastern Camps." I was sure it was a subterfuge, and that my husband had been executed.

Shunned By Neighbors

From that moment, people began to shy away from me. To be seen with a member of the family of an "enemy of the people"—and that was the badge of dishonor conferred upon every victim of the purge—meant to expose oneself to suspicion, surveillance and jeopardy. I became an intouchable to my colleagues and neighbors, except to those women whose husbands or sons had also been seized.

After my three weeks of futile efforts to get to Demyan in the hope of saving him, when I had become convinced that he was gone for good, I faced the trying choice which millions of other Russian wives and mothers had to make: To continue to cry for justice on the theory that Demyan had not been "liquidated," or to bury the great pain within me, to keep silent about the fate of my husband for the sake of at least saving the future of my only son, Oleg.

I felt that Demyan himself would have wanted me to devote the remainder of my life to our boy, knowing full well that safety for Oleg lay in expunging as quickly as possible the memory of his "counter-revolutionary" father. As teachers we knew only too well the almost insuperable difficulties in securing an education and making a career which were put in the path of a lad whose father bore the mark of a citizen disloyal to the Soviet regime.

Many wives whose husbands had been rounded up in the purge and shipped off to distant labor camps did receive cards from somewhere along the route telling of the prisoners' destination. It was a common occurrence to pick up such cards or letters dropped along railroad tracks from prison trains, with please to mail them. I never received any kind of a message from Demyan, and this confirmed me in my belief that he had been put to death.

(On Tuesday, Mrs. Kasenkina tells of her bid to save her son.)

Believe U.S. Could Win War With A-Bomb In Few Months

WASHINGTON (AP) — A couple of air strategists, speaking for themselves, believe the United States could win another war in from one to three months. They envision a "super blitz" of atomic bombs dropped by only a small force of planes.

They claim that "sustained bombing"—the costly program by which thousands of bombers prolong attack on an enemy's homeland for months or years—ended with the Second World War and the advent of the A-bomb.

These views are set forth in the "Air University Quarterly Review" by Col. Frederick L. Moore and Col. Dale O. Smith, both of the United States Air Force.

The publication is put out by the U.S.A.F.'s air university at Maxwell base, Ala. It takes pains to point out that articles carried by it "do not necessarily coincide with, nor are they officially those" of the air force.

CRITICAL VIEWS

Indeed, Smith had some critical words for air force policy. He comments that "these misconceptions (about sustained bombing) are based upon and fostered by the air force belief that bombing must be conducted month after month, year after year, for an indefinite period, until an enemy is pounded into submission." At another point he pleads "let us not be bound down by orthodoxy."

Motorcyclist Hurt

Condition of Ray McGregor, 668 Canterbury Road, injured in a car-motorcycle accident Sunday afternoon, was reported good today.

McGregor was taken to Royal Jubilee Hospital with head and shoulder injuries after the motorcycle he was riding on Government Street hit the right rear fender of a car driven by Albert C. Vey, Honeymoon Bay. Vey was turning west on Fisgard Street after going north on Government. Police impounded the motorcycle.

20 Plotters Held In South Korea

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—Police today arrested 20 persons and accused them of plotting to overthrow the infant South Korean government. Home Minister T. Y. Yoon said an unnamed anti-administration political group—not Communist—planned to take over the government by force after the United Nations' General Assembly had considered the Korean question, possibly later this month.

LIFE can Begin AFTER 40, IF.

Around 40 our energy lessens. But, experience has taught us to do our work with less effort. The years ahead should yield the greatest accomplishments, the most enjoyment and happiness. They can, too, if we avoid the kidney and bladder disorders such as Backache, Headache, Rheumatic Pains, Lassitude, Loss of Sleep and Energy which so often attack those around 40. For over half a century Dodd's Kidney Pills have been helping men and women to keep kidneys and bladder in good order. Baseball—Play By Play

FIRST INNING

Cleveland—Mitchell flied to Williams. After fouling off four pitches, Clark grounded to Pesky who threw him out. Boudreau looked at two balls, fouled off the next pitch, then slammed the next one for a home run into the screen atop the left field wall, 375 feet away. Stevens threw out Gordon.

One run, one hit, no errors, none left.

Boston—Boudreau threw out DiMaggio. Pesky lined a double into right-centre field sliding in ahead of Kennedy's throw. Williams, on a 3-and-2 pitch, bounced out, Boudreau to Clark, with Pesky taking third. Stephens rammed a single inside the third base line scoring Pesky with the tying run. Doerr grounded out, Keltner to Clary.

One run, two hits, no errors, one left.

SECOND INNING

Cleveland—Keltner lined Galehouse's first pitch off the left field wall for a single. DiMaggio raced in fast and made a fine shoestring catch of Doby's looping fly in short centre. Kennedy sent a short fly to DiMaggio. Hegan went down swinging.

No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

Boston—Spence walked on five pitches. Goodman looked at a third strike and Spence was doubled up trying to steal second, Hegan to Boudreau. Tebbets singles sharply in the hole between third and short. Galehouse walked on four pitches. Bob Feller and Bob Lemon, the Indians' right-handed aces, began warming up in the Cleveland bullpen. DiMaggio bounced to Keltner, who fumbled the ball but recovered in time to throw him out at first by a step.

No runs, one hit, no errors, two left.

THIRD INNING

Cleveland—Bearden walked. Mitchell grounded into a double play, Stephens to Doerr to Goodman. Galehouse knocked down Clark's tantalizing bouncer and threw him out at first.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Boston—Pesky bounced to Clark who beat him to first base for the out. Boudreau caught Williams' high foul behind third base near the left field boxes. Stephens lined directly into the hands of Mitchell.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

FOURTH INNING

Cleveland—Boudreau singled right for his second straight hit. Gordon also singled. Boudreau stopped at second. Keltner hammered a home run into the screen above the left field wall, about 400 feet away. The blow scored Boudreau and Gordon ahead of him. That was all for Galehouse. Ellis Kinder, a righthander, relieved Galehouse on the hill. Doby doubled off the left centre field wall, sliding in ahead of Williams' throw. Kennedy sacrificed, Doby going to third, Kinder to Goodman. Hegan sent a high bouncer to short and was thrown out, Stephens to Goodman as Doby scored. Spence looped into right centre to gather in Bearden's fly.

Four runs, four hits, no errors, none left.

Boston—Ed Robinson replaced Clark at first base for the Indians. Doerr struck out on a 3 and 2 pitch. Spence walked. Goodman rolled into a double play, Gordon to Boudreau to Robinson.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Fifth Inning
Cleveland—Mitchell lofted the first pitch to Williams in short left. Robinson popped to Stephens back of second base. Boudreau cracked his second home run of the game and 18th of the year into the screen over the left field wall. It was also his third straight hit of the game. Gordon flied to DiMaggio.

One run, one hit, no errors, none left.

Boudreau threw out Tebbets. Doby went back to gather in Kinder's fly. Keltner raced into the hole and made a fine-gloved hand pickup of DiMaggio's hot smash and threw him out.

Sixth Inning
Indians—Keltner doubled off the left field wall, the ball glancing off the top of Williams' glove as he made a desperate leap to haul it down. Doby popped to Stephens behind second base. Pesky threw out Kennedy, Keltner moving to third. Hegan struck out.

No runs, one hit, no errors.

Red Sox—Pesky bounced out, Gordon to Robinson. Gordon muffed Williams' easy high pop fly in short right. Gordon was charged with an error as Williams held up at first. Stephens struck out. Doerr smashed a home run against the left field screen scoring Williams ahead of him. Both runs were unearned.

Feller and Lemon again began warming up in the Indians' bullpen. Spence went down swinging.

Two runs, one hit, one error.

SEVENTH INNING

Indians—Bearden singled past Doerr into centre field. Mitchell singled sharply to centre. Bearden holding up at second. Robinson sacrificed both runners along, Pesky to Doerr who covered first. Boudreau was purposely passed, filling the bases. Earl Caldwell, a righthander, and Earl Johnson, a lefthander were working in the Boston bullpen. With the count two and two, Gordon fouled to Pesky who made the catch in front of the Indians' dugout. Keltner flied to Williams after fouling off four consecutive pitches.

No runs, two hits, no errors.

Red Sox—Goodman walked on four pitches. Tebbets rapped back to Bearden who started a fast double play, the pitcher to Gordon to Robinson. Boudreau came in fast and grabbed Kinder's high bouncer on a short hop and threw him out at first.

No runs, no hits, no errors.

EIGHTH INNING

Indians—Doby lined a double off the scoreboard in left centre field. Kennedy sacrificed Doby to third, Goodman to Doerr who covered first. Hegan was given an intentional base on balls. The paid attendance was announced at 33,957. Tebbets trapped Doby off third after calling for a pitch-out and Doby was run down between third and home. Tebbets to Pesky who made the tag. Hegan took second on the play. Williams dropped Bearden's long fly to left centre after a long run, for a two-base error, which allowed Hegan to score from second. Mitchell popped to Pesky.

One run, one hit, one error.

Red Sox—Keltner picked up DiMaggio's hard grounder and threw him out. Pesky struck out. Williams singled to left, his first hit of the game. Stephens grounded to Keltner who threw to Gordon forcing Williams at second.

No runs, one hit, no errors.

NINTH INNING

Indians—Robinson singled in the hole between third and short, Stephens making a back-handed stop but was in no position to throw. Boudreau rammed a single to left sending Robinson to second. It was the manager's fourth hit and the fifth time he reached base in the game. Kinder uncorked a wild pitch and both runners moved up a base. Gordon was purposely passed to load the bases. Keltner hit into a double play, Stephens to Doerr to Goodman, Stephens making a nice stop behind third baseman Pesky. Robinson scored on the play but Keltner was not credited with a run batted in. Doby went down swinging.

One run, two hits, no errors.

Red Sox — Doerr tapped weakly back to the box and was out, Bearden to Robinson. Billy Hitchcock batted for Spence. Hitchcock walked. Tom Wright ran for Hitchcock. Goodman struck out, to become Bearden's sixth strikeout victim. Keltner came in fast for Tebbets' slow bouncer and threw him out.

No runs, no hits, no errors.

Far North Naval Voyagers Make Friends With Eskimos

When the Canadian destroyers Nootka and Haida visited Southampton Island, the farthest north point of their cruise to and in Hudson Bay, the crews saw Eskimos at Coral Harbor and for the first time in their lives the natives saw warships. Above, Acting PO. Joseph Carissa of Ottawa is shown handing out chocolate bars to his young acquaintances and L.S. George O'Keefe of Toronto is in the background. Both are members of the Nootka's crew. It was the first time in history ships of Canada's navy had entered Hudson Bay. They went as far as Churchill.—(R.C.N. Photo)

Heavy Casualties As Peru Government Quells Revolt

LIMA, Peru (AP)—Government troops today held full control over the port of Callao after smashing a bloody revolt started by sailors and civilians.

The insurgents, who seized and used the full fire power of warships and heavily-armed naval installations at Callao, Lima's port, launched the revolt early Sunday.

By late Sunday night, government infantrymen, supported by tanks and fighter planes, had rooted the rebels out of their fortified strongholds and apparently had captured them all.

There was no official indication of the number of casualties or of how many persons had taken part in the revolt. All accounts indicated, however, the number of dead and wounded was large.

An army authority said there were so many casualties that trucks probably would be used to augment ambulances in carrying them away.

The government or President Jose Luis Bustamante Rivero said in a communique it had confirmed that the opposition Aprista Party had "inspired and directed" the revolt. The communique said many armed civilians with Aprista had been arrested.

Red Hint British Planning Move To Canada Draws Jeer

LONDON (CP)—A government spokesman today jeered at a suggestion that war plans have reached the stage where evacuation of some government departments to Canada has been discussed.

"We didn't do it in the last war and there is no likelihood we would do it if another war came," he said.

The Communist Daily Worker said "high level talks" have concentrated on the "details of moving large government staffs from the danger centre, London, to other parts of Britain and even due to return this week from Balmoral Castle in Scotland and take up normal residence in Buckingham Palace, still scarred from wartime bombs.

Thieves who broke into Marconi Hardware, North Quadra Street, around 1.50 Sunday morning escaped with four guns.

WE WILL WAIT AND SEE

BECAUSE ANYTHING CAN HAPPEN AT political conventions it would be foolish to suggest that it was a foregone conclusion that the Progressive Conservatives of Canada would select Ontario's Premier George Drew to succeed Mr. Bracken. Admittedly, the former Premier of Manitoba, "drafted" from a section of the Dominion in which he was more or less politically and socially "at home," realized the mistake he made in the early days of December nearly six years ago—but too late. It was his job to deliver to the official opposition at Ottawa the "western vote." He could not do it. Thus, after the general election of 1945, something had to be done about this man who still believed in a basic doctrine of free enterprise which did not differentiate between the rights and aspirations of the "silk hat" brigade and the multitude who wear denim overalls.

No political party worth its salt dislikes or dodges a battle. Since the days immediately following the end of the First Great War the Liberals representing the people in their national Parliament have fought seven general elections and won six. They lost in 1930, largely because a world economic condition brought about by conditions over which this Dominion had no control had caused a disturbed people to wonder whether a change in government might not reveal a panacea for their ills, but partly because Conservative leader Bennett said he would end unemployment or "perish in the attempt."

The election of the Tories in 1930 proved poor business for the Canadian people. Unemployment increased month by month. External trade which totaled $2,640,000,000 at the end of the fiscal year in 1930 dropped to $900,000,000 after the Bennett regime had been in office three years—hence the unemployment. As we have said in these columns many times, however, nobody in his or her right senses would blame Mr. Bennett or his ill-fated one-term government for all the ills which the international tariff spree spilled onto most countries. But by another token, the late Viscount Bennett, implacable in a rooted belief in his own political sagacity, adopted policies during the only period in which the Conservative Party had been in office at Ottawa since 1921 that influenced the Canadian people and strengthened them in their distrust of a species of Toryism which has not substantially changed since the days of the "deal" which Sir Robert Borden negotiated with the Nationalists of Quebec in 1911 on the Reciprocity issue.

It would be premature on our part to suggest that Mr. Drew will avoid the mistakes of the past, that he will not overplay his protest against what he terms the "centralists" and others who refuse to be overruled by his close association with Bay Street and St. James Street, lest he be hoist with his own petard in the consummation of a Duplessis-Drew Axis. Nor is it within our province to offer comments on the suitability for the leadership of the Progressive Conservative Party of the two gentlemen whom Mr. Drew defeated on the first ballot. But it should be noted with considerable satisfaction by those Progressive Conservatives who reside west of the Great Lakes that Major-General George Pearkes, V.C., federal member for the important Vancouver Island constituency of Nanaimo, delivered a diaphanous speech in nominating Mr. John Diefenbaker.

SOMEWHAT LOOSE TALK?

TWO AIRMEN OF REPUTE IN THE United States have contributed individual articles to a new edition of "Air University Quarterly Review" in which they appear to reach the joint conclusion that the great Republic to the south of us could win a war now in from one to three months. The authors of this thesis envision a "super blitz" of atomic bombs dropped by only a small force of planes.

Far be it from us to wade out into the realm of technical accomplishment in respect of aeronautics or into that of atomic development. We would be woefully out of our depth were we to attempt such a foolish excursion. But what impresses us in contentions of this dogmatic nature is the airy manner in which such exponents disregard the achievements of the other fellow—particularly the Russian fellow who is playing his scientific cards extremely close to his Communist chest.

The two distinguished airmen may be sincere in their estimation of their nation's capabilities in a possible future war in the clouds. But even the layman may hazard the idea that an aerial attack with atomic bombs on the vast land mass which is the Soviet Union might not bring that victory they envisage—certainly not within the period of a few weeks. There would seem to be reasons for such doubts.

For example, assuming that this "small force of planes" of which the authors of the article referred to speak were to set forth "now" for Russia, what would be the reply of the Kremlin's military authorities? Would they not send their still mobilized millions across Europe in a westerly direction with the object of repeating the dose which the late and unlamented Adolf Hitler forced down the throats of the Low Countries and France—the latter then as politically divided as she seems to be now? And how do the western democracies know that the men in charge of the destinies of the people of the Soviet Union are concerned about the devastation of their cities which escaped attention from the Nazi hordes? What appears to us to be the most important point to be borne in mind about the machinations of the Communist oligarchy in Moscow—assuming that the west is not going to repeat the ghastly mistake of the Chamberlain-Daladier duo in Munich a decade ago—is its designs for Eurasia and the rest of the countries which dot the southeastern Pacific bowl.

WELCOME VISITORS

KIWANIS IN PARTICULAR AND Victorians in general are playing host to delegates to an important international service club's 31st annual convention. The visitors are members of the Pacific Northwest district of Kiwanis International. They can rest assured that the people of this community are delighted to welcome them, hoping that their stay in this capital city will be both pleasant and profitable.

Cynics who do not belong to international bodies such as Kiwanis, Rotary, Lions, Gyro and others are inclined to look down their noses at what they loosely term organizations whose members meet once a week for a good time. Such critics do not take the trouble to find out for themselves just what these organizations accomplish for the good of humanity. But their joint record speaks for itself.

If the spirit which dominates these movements could be spread more liberally among the peoples of this troubled planet—particularly in those sections of the earth where the authoritarian concept of life prevails—the United Nations Organization would have little difficulty in administering the gospel of peace written into the Charter drawn up and signed in San Francisco in the spring of 1945.

THINK IT OVER

THESE ARE DAYS WHEN THE MEN and women of every free country should realize that they are in the midst of a worldwide battle of ideas and beliefs. Even though no guns are being discharged and no bombs dropped at the moment, the conflict is swirling around them. They must choose a side—the right side—or ultimately perish. In the words of the chaplain who prayed at a meeting of the United States Senate: "Lord, help us to stand for something, because a man who stands for nothing will fall for anything." The public must take part in public business—or a dictator will be very happy to do it for them.

Closely allied to this concept is the public attitude toward those elected representatives who try to perform the tasks of government. Granted that there is a certain percentage who enter public life for what they can get out of it in the way of prestige, advancement or personal gain, the majority of governmental representatives—national, provincial or local—strive conscientiously to do a good job not only for the majority that elected them but also for the minority which, under democratic procedure, they also represent.

The cynical attitude toward public life—the unthinking libel contained in knowing references to "politicians"—does a two-fold disservice to the community. Good men and women already in office are unjustly maligned and their characters besmirched; good men and women not in office are discouraged from seeking positions where they may work in the public interest. National or civic virtue depends in part on the moral conduct of those in office. But it depends much more on the character of the voting public which chooses those representatives. The public usually gets as good a government as it deserves. Let us deserve the best.

POSITIVE PREPAREDNESS

BRITISH PRESS OPINION IS BY NO means unanimous in its approval of the appointment of Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery as head of a joint armed force of the five-power Western European Alliance. What criticism has been advanced, however, has in no way detracted from the reputation of the distinguished British soldier as a field commander. The question of his abilities as a co-ordinator can only be determined by the events of the future. Judgment on that point seems a little premature at the present—specifically in view of his acceptability to the defence ministers of the countries concerned.

What is particularly significant is that the five nations of the alliance, Britain, France, The Netherlands, Luxembourg and Belgium, are moving in a manner to demonstrate their combined strength and to illustrate that measure of preparedness which, in these unhappy times, serves as the most impressive warning against any power with aggressive inclinations. Should war break out, changes of command could be undertaken if such a course were found necessary. Nor need the establishment of a senior staff organization now necessarily imply the continuation of a rigid and unchangeable organization in the event of hostilities. The five-power alliance cannot, on the basis of its membership, draft such a man as Gen. Eisenhower at this stage—although the achievements of the present president of Columbia University might suggest such action later on.

Furthermore, any criticism of "Monty"—and we do not suggest that his qualifications should be wholly beyond question—undoubtedly will be influenced by controversial and highly personalized accounts of the Second World War. Differences of opinion such as that voiced by the late Gen. George C. Patton of the United States, for instance, do not furnish a "complete case against the Field Marshal. Certainly "Monty's" record of achievement commands respect and confidence—even if his diplomatic touch may not be as deft as that of some others.

OBLIGATIONS OF THE CHARTER

THE SITUATION in Berlin, now that the Moscow discussions have been broken off, finds that city blockaded on the ground but with the air corridors still open. The Russians cannot make the blockade complete except by shooting down the cargo planes. That would be war. The west cannot pierce the blockade except by overpowering the Russian troops who hold the railroads, canals and highways leading into Berlin. That would be war.

The crucial question is whether, and how long, this dangerous stalemate will be maintained. It cannot be maintained indefinitely. But in the interval while the stalemate lasts a solution by diplomacy is still possible. This is reflected in the decision of the Western powers to bring the dispute before the United Nations, rather than to deliver an ultimatum.

AN EXAMINATION of American obligations under the Charter and a cool and considered estimate of her vital interests will lead, I think, to the same conclusions: that the United States' soundest and strongest policy is to carry out in full measure the letter and the spirit of the Charter.

The western powers are carrying the Berlin dispute to the Security Council. Article 37 says that "should the parties to a dispute of the nature referred to in Article 33 fail to settle it by the means indicated in that article, they shall refer it to the Security Council." What are "the means indicated" in Article 33? They are that "the parties to any dispute, the continuance of which is likely to endanger the maintenance of international peace and security shall, first of all, seek a solution by negotiation, enquiry, mediation, conciliation, arbitration, judicial settlement, resort to regional agencies or arrangements, or other peaceful means of their own choice."

THUS FAR, IN THE MOSCOW discussion, the west has sought "a solution by negotiation," and has failed. That is why the democracies have come to the U.N. But now that they have come to the U.N. they are under the obligation as parties to the dispute and as guardians and sponsors of the U.N. to try the other "means indicated" in Article 33, namely "enquiry," or "mediation," or "conciliation," or "arbitration," or "judicial settlement" or "other peaceful means of their (that is to say the four powers') own choice."

This is certainly the position they would take if they were not themselves parties to the dispute—if as members of the U.N. they were called upon to deal with the dispute between, let us say, Pakistan and India, or between South Africa and India. They can do no less when they are one of the parties to a dispute.

IF THE OTHER "means" are resorted to, we must suppose that in the end the United Nations will recommend a resumption of the discussions about Berlin, which have just been broken off, and of the discussions of a German peace treaty which western powers must be prepared at some stage in the U.N. action to say what they consider to be the essential terms of a German treaty.

For if there is to be anything more than a temporary and precarious truce in Berlin, it can be only because there is a general settlement of the German question. And if there is to be an irrevocable and irreconcilable break between East and West, and a final partition of Germany and of Europe, then the western position will be infinitely stronger if the break comes over the future of Germany as a whole than over the rather confused dispute in Berlin.

THE WHITE PAPER released last Sunday shows that it was American policy in Moscow to confine the discussions to the issues of the Berlin blockade and the Berlin currency. Thus the White Paper itself deals with the dispute as of March 30 when the Soviet Deputy Military Governor, General Dratvin, announced certain restrictions on travel and freight to Berlin. But the history of the Berlin crisis does not begin on March 30. As early as Jan. 11, the Soviet Army newspaper was making threats against the western powers' position in Berlin, following the request to the German minister-presidents by Generals Clay and Robertson on Jan. 7 that they form a bi-zonal economic administration. As early as Jan. 14 Mr. Lovett was already saying that United States troops would stay in Berlin. Thus the dispute over Berlin had already developed, with many diplomatic exchanges and public declarations, during a period of nearly three months preceding the events dealt with in the White Paper.

THE U.S. STATE Department release is not, therefore, a full account of the whole matter, and it could not be used in its present form as a statement which could be submitted to the judgment of the United Nations or to the verdict of history.

The limitations of the White Paper reflect the limitations of American policy—namely the view that the Berlin crisis should be and can be isolated from the German problem as a whole. Whether that was a wise and sound policy during this summer, it is now too late to argue about.

But now that the matter has been carried to the U.N., it will surely have to be reviewed and re-examined.

Soviet leaders are realists. They are not likely to go to war unless they believe they must fight for survival.—Former U.S. Secretary of State James F. Byrnes.

Anybody who thinks it is possible to get 600,000 people who are perfect just isn't intelligent.—Lt. Gen. Leslie R. Groves, wartime head of the atomic bomb project, when asked if he knew of any atomic security leaks.

Don't Take Them Too Seriously,

As Our Readers See It

BRIGHTENED ISLINGTON

It has been suggested that the enclosed letter which is reproduced below, might prove of interest to your readers.

The flower seeds mentioned were sent to London early this year. It was very largely due to the generosity and good offices of the Princess Chikhmatoff that this society was able thus to play a part, even though only a very small one, in brightening a few odd corners of the devastated areas of poor old London.

W. H. A. PREECE,
President,
V.I. Rock & Alpine Garden Society.

"In the spring of this year we received some seed from the London Flower Lovers' League. I wrote to thank them and they said that you were the original donors so I am writing to thank you.

"Perhaps you would be interested to hear about our school garden. During the war the Heavy Rescue Service turned the school playground into a car park and when they discarded it after the war it looked a sorry sight, full of rubbish and reminding us of the violence and desolation of the war.

"It was impossible to have the original playground restored for two or three years as the building priorities could not be interrupted. So we decided to turn the ugly car park into a garden. At first everybody said it was impossible, but we persisted and at last the L.C.C. removed the rubbish and sent 30 cubic yards of turf.

"At that time we had no gardening tools, so with bare hands, or with coal shovels or seashell sand spades the whole school turned out and sifted the soil. Then we went to bombed buildings and collected bricks to enclose the flower beds which we made into all sorts of irregular shapes. The L.C.C. was by then so impressed that they sent us 2,000 plants, as it was too late in the year for seed growing. By September, 1947, the place was a blaze of color. The Evening News published a photograph of the garden and people came from different parts of London to see it.

"This year we planted our own seed, yours as well and we sent a mixed bunch of flowers for the Evening News competition. We did not win anything, but our flowers looked charming.

"The girls are educationally sub-normal and they live in a very dreary part of London so you can imagine what the garden means to them and to the people in the neighborhood who enjoy the garden from their windows.

"So, once again, thank you very much for your seeds which have helped to make a dreary part of the world beautiful.

We Want To Win, But---

AS an outgrowth of various reports and suggestions advanced by Olympic officials to their governing bodies in recent weeks, editorial controversy has been stirred over the advisability of Canada adopting a new approach to participation in the quadrennial games or retiring from them altogether. The argument is based on the thesis that unless this country's athletes can do better than they did in London, they should not take part because of the humiliation of defeat.

STUDY IN CONTRASTS
The kindest thing that can be said about the Dominion's record at London is that 1948 was an off year. The saddest development was the plaintive cries raised by some of the immature competitors. Contrast must inevitably be drawn between the results of 1948, when places only were registered by our young men and women, and the brilliant achievements of 1928, when Percy Williams scored his double sprint victory, Ethel Catherwood won the high jump and Myrtle Cook and her associates attained eminence. That was a year to go down in the annals of international sport, as far as Canada was concerned. Every Canadian would like to see the record duplicated or improved.

ALTERNATIVE
There is, of course, a means of working to that end, as certain officials have suggested. They advance the proposal that the Canadian government should furnish greater support to athletics, providing better facilities and giving more emphasis to sport in general.

That has a very definite implication. It means a relaxation of the ancient and traditional interpretation of amateurism, as that status is seen by those who staunchly adhere to the theory that athletics should be pastimes for the enjoyment of the participants. Carried to the extreme, that attitude may be out of date.

Government subsidies to increase and improve the conditions under which performers increase their proficiency may be all right. What happens, though, when the policy is carried a step further and the athletes themselves are given the compensation required to permit them to devote their time wholeheartedly to specialization in their respective games. Is it fair to the young man or young woman to encourage him or her to give years to the achievement of a high standard of perfection in a type of activity in which his or her career at best will end in the late thirties or early forties? Is it fair to so influence them with the heady wine of a stadium's cheering and the narcotic exhilaration of big headlines during a time when they could, probably with more material and intellectual profit, devote their time to matters of more abiding value?

Any game, if it is worth playing, any sport, if it is worth participation, should be entered with the desire and the will to win. When achievement reaches the zenith of Olympic championship, it is an occasion for national pride. But if the desire for victory, if the question of prestige in athletics, are raised to a point of national policy, serious dangers are encountered. The game should be held above the prize and sportsmanship can be as well displayed in defeat as in victory.

Professional sport, of course, is different. It is a business. In it results must be produced, just as they must in any other commercial undertaking. And the men and women in it demonstrate their competency only through achievement—as in any other undertaking in which wages paid are expected to produce specific results. That is a matter entirely apart from Olympic participation.

KEEP THE FLAME

Would it not be better to admit the fact that Canada took a beating in the London Olympiad—to admit it and try to do better the next time, but leave amateur athletics in a status in which they preserve the flame of voluntary effort, in which the striving for victory is as important as its attainment?—A.H.S.

To The Sincere

Windsor Star
Education, even higher education, should not be unduly restricted. It is all right to weed out those who have no serious intentions, but the ideal should be to offer the most education possible to the most young people who sincerely seek it.

GLOBAL SURVEY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press News Analyst

THE newly-formed military command of the Western European Union—Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg—needn't in any way be taken as a challenge to war but rather as a further aid to peace.

The success of the command is premised on the expectation of these European countries that they will have the moral and material support of the United States. As a matter of fact, the alliance is in line with advice from the United States government, and American officials have been predicting that Washington will give the closest possible co-operation.

The American attitude towards the alliance isn't a new development. It was foremost as long ago as last June 11 when the United States senate overwhelmingly approved a far-reaching foreign policy resolution by Senator Arthur Vandenberg (rep. Mich.). This served notice on the world that the treaty-making chamber favored United States participation in regional defence organization set up to carry out the peace aims of the United Nations.

However, no American military support could be given the Western European Union until the United States Congress had authorized it, and United States officials have said it would be months before their country could enter any formal military alliance. Meantime the Union is going ahead with all the steam it can develop.

MONTY MALIGNED

Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery, chief of the Imperial General Staff, is said to have been chosen to head the forces of the five-nation alliance. The selection of this world-renowned soldier has been received with mixed emotions in his own country.

The London Daily Express, published by Canadian born Lord Beaverbrook, has characterized Lord Montgomery's selection as "A Grave Blunder." The paper said "An American general, a man of the calibre of Eisenhower," should have been chosen.

The Manchester Guardian, while paying high tribute to the Field Marshal as an army commander, suggests that he may not be popular in the United States, and says he is a land soldier rather than a commander of land, sea and air forces.

MOST SUCCESSFUL

On the other hand, columnist A. J. Cummings of the London News Chronicle calls Lord Montgomery Britain's most successful commander since Wellington, and says he has "no rival in the field for the difficult task now assigned to him."

Well, you can't have alliances without some knotty problems arising. The important point is that there is an alliance, and that it will gain strength with economic recovery and should be a powerful barrier against aggression.

It seems strange that Canada, one of the greatest agricultural countries in the world, should get itself into a position of having to import butter from such tiny countries as Denmark and New Zealand.

WITHOUT VIOLENCE

Halifax Herald
It is to be hoped that a general lessening of living costs can occur without violent economic disturbance.

Prices drop to low levels in a depression, but low prices are of little benefit to people who are out of work.

What is desired is a reasonable easing of sky-high prices so that we can achieve a happy state of affairs in which one does not have to arrange a second mortgage in order to buy a suit of clothes or a week-end supply of groceries.

SALESMAN

Toronto Saturday Night
Among the exhibits at the Canadian National Exhibition we were amazed by the strides that Canadian industry is making. Everywhere we saw evidence that Canadians are able to make new things, discover new and easier ways of doing old jobs, and think out new uses for old products. Nor is this ingenuity confined to our captains of industry. As we passed the open space where people were sitting around on benches and on the ground listening to the band, a newsboy came up and offered us a Globe and Mail: "Here y'are; good to read and good to sit on!"

Wife, Husband In Hospital After Shooting

CALGARY (CP)—A 27-year-old Calgary woman, Mrs. Irene Marsh, was in critical condition in a hospital today suffering from gunshot wounds following a domestic quarrel with her estranged husband.

Also in hospital was her husband, John, 28, suffering from alleged self-inflicted gunshot wounds in the chest. His condition was described as not serious.

The woman has four wounds in her chest and side. The shots are said by police to have been fired from a .22 calibre rifle.

Police said they were investigating the cause of the shooting in the Marsh's east-end home. It is stated the scene of the shooting was an upstairs hallway of the two-story building of which the Marshs occupied the lower floor with their two small daughters, age three and seven years.

The children escaped unharmed.

Lecture Series Starts Tonight

Dr. James O. St. Clair-Sobell, professor of Slavonic studies at U.B.C., intends to give the background to the postwar position of supremacy assumed by the U.S.S.R. in Eastern, Central and South-East Europe, in an address here tonight.

He is the first speaker in the winter series of lectures sponsored by the University Extension Association of Victoria. The lecture will be given in the auditorium of Victoria College-Normal School on Richmond Road. Starting time is 8.15.

Dr. Sobell will endeavour in his lecture titled "Present Soviet Policy in Europe," to explain the physical reasons for the present division of Europe and the new economic policies of nationalization and totalitarian control that are being introduced under Soviet tutelage. He will give an assessment of the ultimate aims of the Soviet and the methods being used to attain them. This will include a reference to "cold" war and "shooting" war tactics.

The lecture is open to the public free of charge. Chairman will be Prof. Robert T. Wallace, of Victoria College, president of the extension association.

Nova Scotia Tories Seek New Leader

OTTAWA (CP)—C. F. "Fred" Fraser, a former Halifax newspaper editor, has been sounded out by some leading Nova Scotia Progressive Conservatives as a possible candidate for the party leadership in that province, it was learned today.

The surprise entry of Mr. Fraser's name into the leadership—he is not a party member—developed among delegates attending the party's national convention here.

A convention to choose a new leader is to be held late this year, and one leading Progressive Conservative from Nova Scotia said the delegates here had taken the opportunity of surveying the situation in advance.

The party leadership has been vacant since the resignation of Leonard W. Fraser—no relation to C.F.—late in 1945 after a general election in which the Progressive Conservatives emerged without a seat in the Legislature.

In Nova Scotia, C. F. Fraser is best known as a former editor of the Halifax Chronicle and Halifax Daily Star, papers of generally liberal views but which have been sharply critical of the federal Liberal government on a number of issues including Dominion-provincial relations.

Poultry Hatchery Operators' Meeting

CALGARY (CP)—The 11th annual convention of the western section of the Canadian Federation of Hatchery operators opened here today with delegates attending from the four western provinces.

Today's sessions were devoted almost entirely to committee work and the official convention opening will take place tomorrow with O. S. Longman, Alberta deputy minister of agriculture, as the main speaker.

Other speakers during the four-day gathering will be W. A. Brown and A. D. Davey, both officials of the federal department of agriculture, and agriculture Minister David A. Ure of Alberta.

May Take Action To Halt Work On Memorial Airpark

Work on the Greater Victoria Memorial Airpark at Gordon Head will likely start within the next few days in spite of possible action to halt the work, according to W. A. Scott, chairman of the airpark association.

Frank Copley and other workers, aided by bulldozers and graders, will commence leveling the landing strip as soon as a crop of hay now on the land is harvested.

It is hinted, however, that officials of Ward Three Saanich Ratepayers' Association may take legal action in an effort to halt construction of the airpark.

The way was cleared for the landing field to be built when Saanich Council passed the third reading of a rezoning by-law at a stormy session last week.

Reeve E. C. Warren was not in the chair when the vote was taken.

Norman C. Bell, president of the ratepayers' group, said a meeting will be held to consider the question. He would not elaborate on his statement. Assurance that "we shall do our utmost to prove you right in rezoning this property by developing the area as an airpark and recreational centre of which your municipality and the entire southern island will be proud," was given to Saanich Council in a letter of thanks from P. D. P. Holmes, secretary of the airpark association.

Report Attlee To Quit Not Confirmed

LONDON (AP)—The News of the World said Saturday night that it had a report that ailing Prime Minister Attlee "may resign within the next two or three weeks."

The political correspondent of the independent London newspaper attributed the report to "circles in close touch with Downing Street."

Members of Attlee's household said "we know nothing of it." The Prime Minister has been suffering from stomach trouble.

Brian J. Lukyn, Gordon Head Camp, was fined $10 in city police court Saturday on a charge of driving without adequate eye-glasses, as required by a restriction on his driver's license.

Regional Drama Contests May Be Held In Victoria In March

B.C. regional contests of the Dominion Drama Festival will be held March 3, 4 and 5 next, possibly in Victoria. It is hoped to procure the services of John Gielgud, famed English actor, as adjudicator for the finals to be held in Toronto.

These and other important items were discussed at a meeting held by the B.C. Drama Association at the Empress Hotel.

The association has had a successful year of achievement and the meeting laid plans to make the coming season a broad step in the advancement of drama throughout the province and the Dominion.

Reports of the previous year's activities were presented by H. S. Hlm, director of community drama for B.C. and secretary of the association. Further reports were given by Miss Dorothy Somerset, director of drama under the department of extension, U.B.C., and chairman of the B.C. regional board of the Dominion Drama Festival.

Mr. Hurn told of his department's work in the interior of B.C., reviving the community drama movement. There is reason to be optimistic for the future, he said. Many people are enthusiastic, and established clubs are steadily developing their work. Numerous new clubs have been set up and are striding ahead. The war years caused adult drama to suffer, but new talent coming up from schools and colleges is bringing about a revival.

LACK GOOD DIRECTORS

"The basis is there," said Mr. Hurn. "Most of the difficulty for the smaller outlying clubs is in finding competent directors—few of the communities are fortunate enough to possess such an asset."

He then told of the 26 drama festivals this year throughout the province, and the move afoot to have the Dominion Drama Festival made non-competitive in the future.

Miss Somerset paid tribute to the unflinching enthusiasm and devotion of the various committees during the regional contests. She terminated her report on the Western Canada Theatre Conference by expressing the belief that a national theatre is in the making. In the meantime there is plenty of work to be done in the west, she said.

A point of interest brought out in the report was a project for supplying leaders and directors in drama throughout the communities of B.C.

Mrs. E. A. Woodward was re-elected president; W. B. Crawley, vice-president; H. S. Hurn, secretary; Anne Adamson, recording secretary, and P. S. Watt, treasurer.

Whooping Crane Search Again Fails

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two far-searching United States biologists confess they still have not found the home nest of the whooping crane.

It was the fourth season of the search, the National Audubon Society's Robert P. Allen and the Fish and Wildlife Service's Robert H. Smith reported.

They flew 16,000 miles over northwestern Canada and eastern Alaska this summer, they said, and they looked in vain.

The last authentic whooping crane nesting was reported by William R. Rowan, University of Alberta zoologist, near Edmonton in 1922.

Next June, the searchers said, they will comb the salt-flat plain between Great Bear Lake and Great Slave Lake in the Mackenzie District. This they described as a "promising region."

By-laws Approved Beer Tax, Water

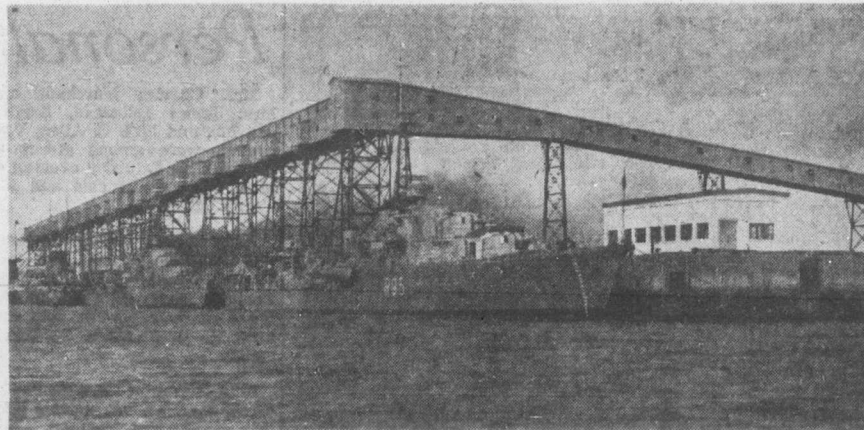

LADYSMITH — By-laws imposing a tax on beer-selling establishments, based on Liquor Control Board license fees and authorizing a temporary loan of $15,000 for the waterworks project, were passed by Ladysmith City Council.

Last year, the city passed a Waterworks Loan By-law for $20,000, covering the estimated cost of further improvements to the city's waterworks system, construction of a cement reservoir on Holland Creek and installing a pipeline of 10-inch and 8-inch pipe from Second Avenue to the proposed reservoir.

A by-law designed to amend the rates and charges in the waterworks regulating rates by-law will be introduced at the next council meeting.

LUXTON RATEPAYERS

LUXTON—Luxton and Metcham Ratepayers' Association will meet in Luxton Hall Tuesday night at 8.

WARSHIPS AT CHURCHILL—The destroyers Nootka and Haida are back at Halifax after their cruise in Hudson Bay. The farthest point of their voyage was Churchill. At that port they were moored for a time at the big national pier, as shown above—the Nootka, the Haida, and astern of Haida the icebreaker N. B. McLean. Astern of the McLean was the Ss. Great City, loading her second Churchill grain cargo of the season for Great Britain.—(R.C.N. Photo)

Cost Of Defences In Year $56 Per Head In Britain

LONDON (CP)—If every inhabitant of Britain contributed £14 (56) it would just about pay the cost of maintaining the country's defences in the present fiscal year. No one can guess how much it will be in 1949-50.

The per capita cost was given to the House of Commons by A. V. Alexander, minister of defence. It indicates the burden that has been placed on Britain's creaky financial structure by the present international tension.

Some observers — principally those with Conservative leanings — say the cost of precautionary rearmament will upset the "disinflation" plan of Sir Stafford Cripps, Chancellor of the Exchequer. His program of taxation, which takes the cream off the public's spending powers, has done much to curb a postwar buying spree that created many shortages and helped keep prices high.

Money drained off in this manner was earmarked for a budgeted surplus; in other words it would be literally frozen. Sir Stafford had hoped for a surplus of £778,000,000, but his critics doubt if this figure will be approached.

They contend export plans will suffer too as men are diverted from civilian plants to defence industries, and such scarce materials as steel go the same way.

OPINION OF STRAUSS

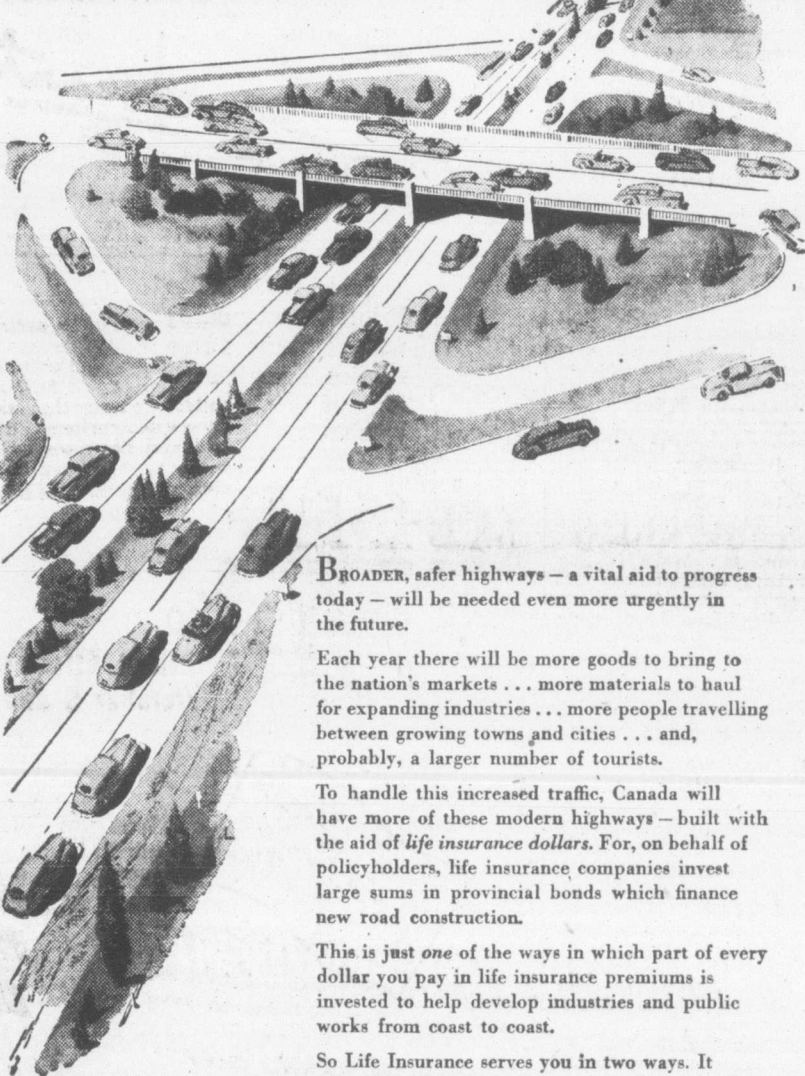

This argument is disputed by Supply Minister G. R. Strauss, who told a press conference rearmament is not yet on a scale large enough to affect the country's economy.

At present, he said, any reduction in the output of consumer goods was based on a falling-off of demand rather than on preoccupation with defence orders.

The government's royal ordinance factories now were taking army orders to the exclusion of civilian, but this was partly because the latter were decreasing.

A postcard posted in June, 1929, at Liverpool, has just been delivered at Harrogate, 100 miles away.

How will traffic problems be solved tomorrow?

BROADER, safer highways — a vital aid to progress today — will be needed even more urgently in the future.

Each year there will be more goods to bring to the nation's markets... more materials to haul for expanding industries... more people travelling between growing towns and cities... and, probably, a larger number of tourists.

To handle this increased traffic, Canada will have more of these modern highways — built with the aid of life insurance dollars. For, on behalf of policyholders, life insurance companies invest large sums in provincial bonds which finance new road construction.

This is just one of the ways in which part of every dollar you pay in life insurance premiums is invested to help develop industries and public works from coast to coast.

So Life Insurance serves you in two ways. It offers financial protection to you and your family. And it helps make Canada a better land to live in.

A message from the life insurance companies in Canada and their agents.

Movable Ski Tow For Island Plateau

COURTENAY—Comox District Mountaineering Club has let a contract for construction of a moveable 500-foot ski tow for the Forbidden Plateau ski fields, to Angus McMonnies and Brian Bayley of Courtenay.

The tow which will cost an estimated $900 will consist of an "endless" rope and a donkey engine and will be used this year in the nature of an experiment with a view to constructing a permanent tow next season. Work of renovating the ski cabin was almost completed this week-end by a work party.

Accidental Death At Lake Cowichan

LAKE COWICHAN — Accidental death was the verdict of a coroner's jury inquiring into the death of Henry Edwards Parham, 29, at an inquest conducted by Col. J. H. Boyd Friday.

Parham, employed by the Tiesu Trucking Co., was greasing a truck. The heavy box of the vehicle had been raised in order to reach some of the mechanism. It was believed that in some manner he knocked the lever which dropped the body, pinning him beneath it and the frame. Constable George Phillips testified that the truck test had shown everything to be in perfect order.

36th Night School Session Beginning

Night school starts tonight. It will be the 36th session of Greater Victoria evening classes held under the direction of the Greater Victoria School Board.

Classes are open to anyone not attending public schools, irrespective of their place of residence, except for apprentice classes. Students will enroll with instructors at the school where the course is to be given.

Apprentice courses will be at Kings Road School and the technical building at Victoria High School; commercial courses at Victoria High; community activities at Victoria High; cultural courses at Victoria High.

Hobby courses at Victoria High, Central Junior High, Old Oak Bay High, Mount View High, Quadra School and Lansdowne Road School; home-making courses at Victoria High, Central, Old Oak Bay and Market Building.

Industrial courses at Victoria High Technical Building, Central and Kings Road; language courses at Victoria High, Central, Old Oak Bay and Market Building.

To Improve Harbor At Port Alberni

PORT ALBERNI—A. F. Blanchard, federal public works engineer, conferred with harbor commissioners here, on details of construction of new fishermen's floats and a road to serve them at the Dominion Government bulkhead.

Tenders on the $34,000 project will be called and the work started as soon as the contract is awarded. It is expected the work will be completed before next spring.

The sum of $60,000 has been appropriated by Ottawa for an extensive dredging operation in Port Alberni Harbor which will remove a "hogback" near the Bloedel, Stewart Welch docking facilities. Work will be delayed until next year, according to harbor commissioners who reported they were advised, dredges have been kept busy in the Fraser area and contractors cannot take them off their present projects.

Discuss Y.W.C.A. For Port Alberni

PORT ALBERNI—Advisability of instituting a local branch of the Young Women's Christian Association, will be discussed at a meeting in Port Alberni city council chambers, Oct. 2.

A marked increase in the number of working girls in the district as a result of industrial expansion in recent years, is noted by those interested in the plan, who state one of the greatest needs is for women's residential accommodation either on a transient or permanent basis.

St. Margaret's Old Girls Realize $75

Attractive arrangements of fall flowers decorated reception rooms at the home of Mrs. Norman Yarrow, Foul Bay Road, when St. Margaret's School Old Girls' Association entertained both mothers of the present students and members, at a silver tea Saturday afternoon.

Guests were welcomed by Mrs. Yarrow, Miss H. M. Pearce, principal, and Mrs. A. K. Love, president of the association.

Presiding at tea tables were Mrs. M. E. Godson, vice-principal, Mrs. J. Ross, Mrs. J. S. Woods, Miss Doris Harper and Miss Barbara Bullock-Webster.

The sum of $75 was realized and will be used for the scholarship fund.

During the afternoon, tickets were on sale for the Victoria Little Theatre's play, "Dear Ruth," which the association is sponsoring on Nov. 19, in aid of the school's reference library.

Responsible for the successful arrangements were Mesdames E. Qualington, G. Bell, A. J. Laundry, Misses Frances Price, Norah Cornwall, Margaret Ogle and Sally Woods.

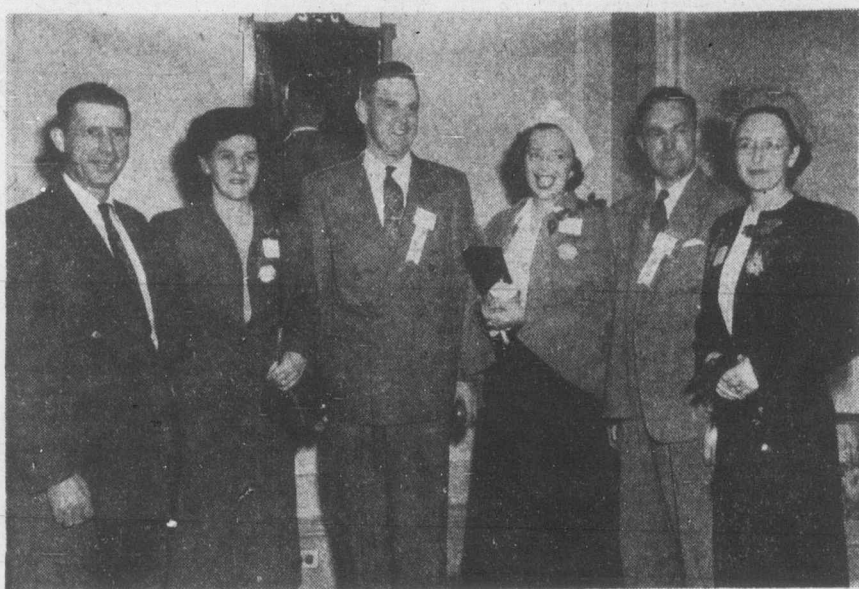

Honor Grand Mistress

Members of the local past mistresses of the Ladies' Orange Benevolent Association will entertain at an afternoon tea at the home of Mrs. E. Kealey, 597 Oliver Street, Wednesday, to honor Mrs. M. Thomas, grand mistress of B.C. Mrs. E. Bell will act as convener.

Engagements

Announcements to appear under this heading will be accepted at the Times Advertising Department. Minimum charge $1.00 for 10 lines and 15c for each additional line.

Mr. L. G. Wells, 1046 View Street, announces the engagement of his eldest daughter, Mary Kathleen Wells, to Mr. Hugh Carmichael Reston, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. F. Reston, Chaucer Street. The wedding will take place on October 23, 1948.

A group from Yakima, Wash., included, left to right, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Saar, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth N. Ryan and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Ripley.

Kiwanians Gather Here For Meetings

Accompanied by their wives and daughters, delegates attending the 31st annual Pacific Northwest district convention of Kiwanis International, in Victoria this week, arrived at the Empress Hotel yesterday afternoon.

This afternoon a tea was held in the lounge at Oak Bay Beach Hotel to honor Mrs. Ben H. Hazen, wife of the governor of the district and tomorrow afternoon, wives and daughters of delegates will be honored when Hon. Herbert Anscomb, acting Premier of the province, with Mrs. Anscomb and members of the cabinet and their wives entertain at a reception at the Parliament Buildings by tea in the library.

Wives and daughters will also attend the governor's dinner at the Empress Hotel tonight and the dinner and ball at the Crystal Garden, Tuesday evening.

Victorians Dance At Genoa Bay Lodge

Dancers at Genoa Bay Lodge on Saturday evening included members of the Capital City Yacht Club, who had spent the afternoon staging a special water parade for children of the Queen Alexandra Solarium at Mill Bay.

Fifteen C.C.Y.C. yachts, gaily decorated, took part in the event, which children of the Solarium witnessed from the wide verandas.

Johnny Johnson won first prize for "best dressed yacht" with the Kalatan and Monty Porter second with Away We Go. Club members later visited the Solarium and gave each child a gift.

Members who continued on to the Saturday night dance at the lodge included Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Henshall, Mr. and Mrs. John Bosdet, Mrs. Sara Bosdet, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bostock, Mr. and Mrs.

V. M. Griffin. Other Victorians, many up for a week-end fishing, included Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Leary, Miss Kay Fox, John Pearson, Geoff Edgelow and S. Sylvester.

Messrs. Bill and Dick deMille, cousins of the famed Hollywood producer were at the lodge, also Scott Lane, San Diego, and William Allen and C. Edvitt of Boeing Aircraft, Seattle.

Y.P. Societies

St. John's—At a short business meeting held last week, further plans were made for the annual A.Y.P.A. conference in Vancouver this month. Following business, Mrs. George Biddle addressed the group. Next meeting will take the form of a variety night, commencing at 8 p.m.

First Baptist—At last week's meeting of the First Baptist Young People's Union, Miss G. Wright, guest speaker, gave an interesting talk on work of the social welfare and community chest.

Fall Fair—Plans were completed for the fall fair to be held in the schoolroom Nov. 5, by members of the Women's Auxiliary of Metropolitan United Church, at their meeting held in the schoolroom, with Mrs. J. T. Williams in the chair. Mrs. B. Bracewell conducted the devotional period. Servimus Group announced that a musical would be held Oct. 8 at the home of Mrs. A. H. Adams, 1210 Beach Drive, and the Amica Group reported that a rummage sale would be held in the market Oct. 27. Mrs. Florence Bailey was appointed treasurer of the W.A. for the balance of the year.

Personal Notes

Mrs. Charles Marchant and Mrs. James Billadeau, Seattle, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Allen, Vancouver, were among guests at the wedding Saturday evening of Miss Kathleen Muckle and Mr. Frank Oliver.

After holidaying in England and Scotland for the past four months, Misses Jean and Joan Fenwick have returned to the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Fenwick, 24 Lewis Street.

Miss Margaret McMartin, whose marriage takes place later this week, was honored when Miss Daphne Murray, 2568 Thompson Avenue, entertained at a miscellaneous shower Friday evening. A gardenia and rosebud corsage was presented to Miss McMartin, and carnations and violets en corsage were presented to her mother, Mrs. James McMartin. A wishing well contained the gifts.

Lt.-Col. George Paulin with officers of the 5th B.C. Ack-Ack Regiment entertained Saturday evening in the Officers' Mess at The Armouries, at a dance party for their wives, daughters and friends.

Honoring Miss Dorothea Matkin and Miss Marjorie McKenzie, brides-elect of this month, Mrs. C. L. Whitty entertained with a luncheon at the Oak Bay Golf Club. The invited guests were Mrs. F. Matkin, Mrs. A. McKenzie and Mrs. H. S. Bruce.

Mrs. D. Earl, "Maple Hurst," East Saanich Road, Royal Oak, was a recent tea hour hostess. Invited guests were Mrs. H. A. McLeod, who is leaving the city this week to make her home in Winnipeg, Mrs. W. G. Wilson and Mrs. W. T. Straith.

Miss Clara E. Jones has returned to her home, 1329 Pandora Avenue, following a vacation trip to California in which she visited her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Jones, at Salinas, and spent some time with Mr. and Mrs. George S. Way of San Francisco. Mrs. Way is the former Miss Tilly Grant of Victoria.

Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Irene Wilson, Foul Bay Road, an afternoon tea was given in honor of Mrs. June Johnston, who is leaving for eastern Canada shortly. On behalf of sister members of Omicron Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, Mrs. Joan Skipper presented the honor guest with a 5 o'clock spoon, appropriately engraved, to convey best wishes of the chapter.

Miss Elizabeth Mackie and Miss Anne Adamson entertained at the tea hour Sunday at the home of the former, 376 Beach Drive, in compliment to bride-elect of this week, Miss Margaret McMartin. The honor guest was presented with a gift and corsage bouquet of gardenias and Sweetheart rosebuds on behalf of the 16 guests. Mrs. A. R. Mackie and Miss Phyllis Muggford presided at the urns.

Lady Emily Walker returned to Victoria the end of last week, following a visit in England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales. Lady Emily left Victoria in April and flew to England, where she attended the wedding of her niece, Lady Margaret Seymour, to Mr. Phillip Hay, which took place at her old home, Ragley Hall, Alcester. While in England, Lady Emily stayed with her sisters, Lady Victoria de Trafford and Lady Jane Carlton, and with other relatives. She returned to Victoria by plane, stopping en route at Toronto, Niagara Falls and in Buffalo.

Students Receive First Aid Awards

Students at Sir James Douglas School, who enrolled in the St. John Ambulance course last term were awarded first aid certificates by Mrs. W. T. Straith in an assembly at the school.

W. H. Wilson, principal, introduced William Fulton, president of the Victoria section of St. John Ambulance Association, who congratulated girl students, and Miss Christine MacNab, their instructor.

The following received St. John Ambulance Junior Certificates: Shirley Rowe, Caroline Oliphant, Patricia Clapp, Joan Verhey, Isabel Jones, Megan Jones, Dorothy Brown, Bernice Anders, Marilyn Bassett, Shelby Jobbins, Mary Carley, Ann Heywood, Louise Warren, Lorna Mullen, Jean McMillan, Sylvia Zafferis, Ann Sprinkling, Louella Kalk, Peggy Roach, Anne Firth, Beverley Husband, Jaunita Campbell, Maureen Smith, Kathleen Morrish, May Inglis, Sally Howe, Doreen Carey, Lucy Parker, Anne Murphy, Betty Sutherland, Audrey Atkins, Beverley Watson, Beverley Riome, Connie Steers and Linda Wolfe.

Former City Girl Married In Nevada

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hanes.

In Victoria for several days on their honeymoon are Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hanes, Los Angeles and Hollywood.

Mrs. Hanes is the former Joan Barden, daughter of Mrs. Mark Barden of this city. Before coming to Victoria in 1947, she spent some time in Chelsea, England.

The newlyweds exchanged their vows in The Little Church of the West, in Las Vegas, Nev., Sept. 9.

Mr. Hanes, a sound technician with Columbia Pictures of Hollywood, came to Victoria with the company when pictures were being made at the Willows, and has since made several holiday trips to the city.

While here, Mr. and Mrs. Hanes are staying at the Avonlea Bungalows. Before their return to Los Angeles, they will motor to Niagara Falls and New York.

GUIDES TO HAPPINESS

This is the month when wedding bells are ringing a merry roundelay and when everybody, even those who have been repeaters in the divorce court, feels called upon to give wise counsel to the newlyweds on how to be happy though married. Probably it does no harm, for good advice is one of the things that we never take, and, anyway, any bridal couple would scoff at the idea that they needed any suggestions about how to keep off of each other's toes. They are so certain that they will never do anything but bill and coo and "yes darling" each other.

Now the most important thing in the lives of every man and woman is how to make their marriage a success and to keep eating out of each other's hands. So far it has been as much of a mystery as how to construct an atomic bomb, but here and there a couple have pulled off the stunt and they are generous enough to give their recipe to this column, for free.

And a woman did it! Think of that! She writes: "Before we were married my husband and I made six rules to guide our domestic life. Number One was: Don't make marriage a 50-50 proposition. Put 'all you have into it. Don't just make excuses for each other's faults. Love them because they are Tom's or Sally's. Plan together. Work together. Laugh together. Cry together. Nothing is hard to do or endure if there is another shoulder helping you to bear it."

MAGIC IN LOVE

"Number Two: Give yourself with your gift. There is a selfishness far worse than being stingy about the tangible wants of our husbands and wives. It is the deliberate withholding of the loving words, the sunny smiles, the warm kisses, the sympathy and understanding that never fail. No matter what the bankers say, the most valuable thing on earth is still love. And it is the greatest magic. It is the thing that makes a homely woman beautiful, takes the sting out of poverty, and the more you give, the greater the supply."

"Number Three: Pray together. Perhaps marriages aren't made in Heaven, but it is certainly a safe place to keep them. No husband and wife who pray together ever get far from God."

"Number Four: Be amiable. Be jolly. Keep your troubles to yourself and divide your laughs with your husband. Men have plenty of worries in their business without having their wives add to them by grouching over the price of meat, or telling how bad the children have been. The difference between a marriage that is just an endurance test and one that is a bit of Heaven on earth is whether the wife is a smiler or not.

KID YOUR HUSBY

"Number Five: Remember that after the marriage the wife has to do the love-making. Don't scribble on it. Keep telling your husband how handsome and wonderful he is and how you appreciate all of his goodness to you. Few men will admit to being romantic, but they all gobble up sweet talk, and ask for more."

"Number Six: Don't believe that marriage kills love. It is only the wives who rat on their jobs as wives who kill their husband's love. But the good wife becomes a part of her husband's very life blood and he loves her more every day."

The woman who has worked out this schedule for making a happy marriage says it always works. Who can doubt it?

Attractive Mrs. George Drew Charms Crowd With Her Smile

OTTAWA (CP)—Someone handed Mrs. George Drew a "coke" Saturday as she and her husband met the press immediately after his election as Progressive Conservative party leader.

No glass, no straw, just the "coke."

She went on from there, the true political veteran she is. But she never did get around to drinking that "coke."

There'd been too many cameras aimed at her, too many questions, too many neat, smiling answers. The attractive 37-year-old wife of the Ontario premier did manage to smoke two cigarettes—and to charm the 20-odd reporters.

Her flashing eyes and lovely smile—with just the right word or two—provided most of the answers.

One wide-eyed male reporter asked breathlessly: "Do you think your personal charm helped get Mr. Drew elected?"

Mrs. Drew raised those black eyebrows and said: "You want me to say 'yes' to THAT?"

There was no answer from the reporter.

Earlier, she started to tell something about her 54-year-old husband's ideas of Communism. "Ever since he came back from that visit to Russia in 1937..."

"That's 1907, eh?" interjected a badly-confused newspaper man. "No," said Mrs. Drew with another of those sparkling laughs and a scolding shake of her head, "1937. Since then, he's been writing and talking steadily of the Communist menace."

Mrs. Drew is perfectly at ease in any situation. When it comes to talking about "George," she's in her element.

Prior to the press conference, as he thanked the party convention which chose him successor to John Bracken, she listened attentively.

Then she was called to the microphone. There was wild applause for this beaming young woman dressed in a grey fitted jacket and "new look" ballerina skirt and pert little black pill-box hat with jaunty red trim.

MRS. GEORGE DREW

"A photographer just asked me to wave," she told the happy crowd of 6,000 delegates and party supporters. "I can hardly speak, I am so moved by this demonstration." The applause, she said, was "not for me only but, through me, for George."

"I can only say thank you, thank you with all my heart... you have placed a great, great honor on him—also a great responsibility. I know my husband. I know his heart and his thoughts and his wish for our great country and its people. And I believe he will be truly worthy of your faith in him... thank you, thank you a thousand times."

'Sister Francis' Once Toast Of Europe, Now 98 Years Old

VANCOUVER (CP)—Mrs. S. G. Ball, the toast of the Court of St. James 80 years ago, and "Sister Francis" to troops in the South African War at the turn of the century, celebrated her 98th birthday today in the peace and quiet of a tiny housekeeping room.

"This is my little castle," she said, indicating the walls and tables piled high with treasures and mementos of a long and colorful life. "It has to be. I haven't been outside for three years."

Born in India where her father served with the British Army, she was educated and brought up in the regal atmosphere of Queen Victoria's Court in London. Her mother, the Countess de La Roche, was lady-in-waiting to the Queen.

At 23, tired of the glittering social whirl of court life, she dedicated herself to the church and became a medical missionary.

She married Dr. S. G. Ball, a medical man, and went with him to establish a leper colony on the Malabar coast, near the southern tip of India.

From those early missionary days, and later during service in the South African War, she acquired the friendly name—Sister Francis—by which she is still known.

Her husband was killed in an Indian uprising and her five children all died in the First World War. Sister Francis came here and built one of the first houses in the city's west-end.

"The toast of All Europe" as a girl, she now lives alone in relative poverty. Some years ago doctors said she was going to die and she made endowments with almost all her fortune.

"When I am dust," she said, "those places will thrive."

Among the institutions she now supports are 15 leper colonies and a church and hospital in India.

150 Loggers Quit Over Increase In Board Rates

One hundred and fifty employees of Bloedel Stewart and Welch Ltd. at Port Alberni, protesting over the increase in board rates, took their time slips last week, it was reported during the week-end.

Officials of the company said that the protesting loggers had been given a choice of going back to work or getting their time. About 150 out of the 2,000 employees on Vancouver Island chose to get their time.

Those quitting were described by a company official as younger men, most of whom had not been with the company very long.

Employees of the Western Forest Industries Ltd., Gordon River camp, near Lake Cowichan, met Friday to discuss the board increase and did not go into the woods that day, a company official said. He said he expected the men would return to work today although no confirmation could be received immediately this morning that they had.

About 50 men were involved in the Lake Cowichan dispute.

In Vancouver Ernie Dalskog, B.C. district president of the I.W.A., charged that operators have wiped out the recent 13-cent hourly wage boost by increasing the board rates.

He reported that rates have also been boosted in the Queen Charlotte Island, Central Lake and Silver Skagit areas. There the costs have been increased from $2 to $2.50 per day.

"This is obviously part of a general move by operators to cancel out the wage increases," charged Dalskog.

The union district president said the recent increase on the formula worked out by a conciliation board headed by Mr. Justice H. I. Bird would give loggers an additional $125 a year. But, he maintained, the Friday increase in board rates, coupled with a 50-cent-a-day boost affected last April 1, would cost the loggers $140 a year.

"Just a routine visit. I make it every year," said B. W. Roberts, O.B.E., vice-president of purchases and stores for the Canadian Pacific Railway, on his arrival in Victoria today.

Program Pays Off With $30,000; Listener Insurance Announced

NEW YORK (AP)—Fred Allen, radio's dour-faced comedian, began a one-man campaign Sunday night against "give-away" programs.

CITY'S GARBAGE 'SUNK'—The garbage crusher built by Fancher and Fancher, California machinists, for the city was put through its paces Friday and observers think it will do the trick. The "trick" is to mangle refuse, cans and bottles to such an extent that little will float onto the beaches, but will sink when dumped from barges in the straits. The crusher in operation is watched in the picture by Ald. J. D. Hunter, public works committee chairman, and members Ald. H. M. Diggon and Ald. Frank Mulliner, and others.

Phone Shortage Continues Though Record Number Of Books Printed

The new telephone directory for Victoria and Vancouver Island is out, but there are still a lot of people in the city who watched the delivery men pass by their houses.

Telephone company officials reported that there is still a tremendous backlog of orders for telephones, and they would not offer any suggestion as to when it might ease a little.

"The shortage is world-wide," they said, "and it is a shortage of all types of equipment—no one thing is actually holding the situation up."

For those lucky people who did receive one of the new green-colored directories, a few facts might be in order.

There have been a few orders for 'phones filled, since 44,600 directories were printed as compared with 43,800 last February.

His war work was recognized in the 1946 honors list when he was created an officer of the Order of the British Empire.

He first joined the C.P.R.'s purchasing department at Vancouver in 1908.

The book is put out every eight months.

BIGGEST YET

The new book is the biggest yet for Victoria and the island, having a total of 10 more pages—four in the classified (yellow) pages and six in the up-island exchanges—and weighs one pound and one ounce.

Just why anyone other than the people who deliver them would want to know what their 'phone book weighs, we don't know, but the telephone company includes it in their statistics, so it is passed on to you.

Victorians have an advantage over Vancouverites this issue. Because of the size of the Vancouver book, it was found that no hole could be put in the upper left corner for a string with which to hang the book.

Some reaction to this is reported from the mainland city, but a telephone company spokesman says cities with thick directories must leave the hole out. "It's a sign of the growth of Vancouver," he said.

ESTABLISHED 1868
HOME OFFICE
WATERLOO, ONT.

October 1, 1948.

OFFICE OF THE
PRESIDENT

To our Policyholders:

On September 28, the volume of insurance in force in our Company passed the billion dollar mark. This outstanding achievement is highly significant in that 98% of this insurance is on the lives of people in Canada and Newfoundland—for this is a Canadian company operated for Canadians.

It is a notable milestone in the progress of our Company—a long stride forward since those days over 78 years ago, when the founders had to sell five hundred policies before they could secure Government permission to operate a mutual life insurance company.

But, it means more than this.

It is proof of the public's ever-growing consciousness of the advantages of mutual life insurance.

It is proof that Mutual Life of Canada policies fit the needs of Canadians in all walks of life.

It is proof of intelligent and sympathetic service by the Company's representatives.

It is proof that this Company has won a leading place in the confidence of the Canadian public.

The policyholders are to be congratulated on this achievement which has been due largely to the confidence they have shown in the Company by recommending it to their friends and by keeping their own insurance in force through the years.

James L. Long
President.

INDUSTRY HIT BY RISING PRICES

Rising prices affect everyone these days. In industry, for example, the cost of bituminous coal has gone up about 300 per cent.

Today's higher fuel prices emphasize the importance of insulation more than ever before. For many years industry has looked to Johns-Manville for the numerous types of insulation needed in our power plants and factories. Teamed up with these heat-saving materials is an organization of skilled applicators who are trained in Johns-Manville methods. These men have the technical skill that comes from long experience with industry's insulation problems.

Yes, Johns-Manville Insulations, expertly applied, save costly fuel by reducing heat losses and keep your plant operating at peak efficiency. For information write Canadian Johns-Manville, 1206 Homer Street, Vancouver.

Kiwanians Here For Big Convention

Following registration at the Empress Hotel Sunday afternoon, these three Kiwanians from Washington state started preliminary convention business. Left to right are: G. I. Griffith of Olympia; C. S. Harley of Seattle and Fred Syverson of Spokane.

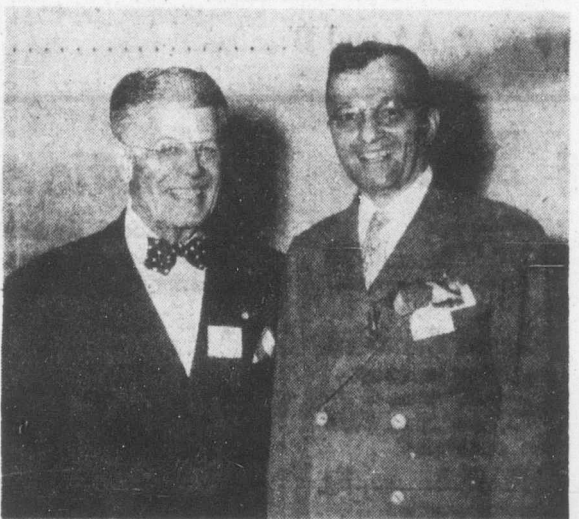

Don E. Engdahl of Spokane, left, and Frank Taylor of Tacoma, centre, were anxious to get some sightseeing done Sunday afternoon before the convention got down to business this morning. They discussed the matter with Charles Hamilton of Vancouver, right.

Delegates to the Kiwanis convention were transported from the boats to the Empress Hotel, convention headquarters, in a horse-drawn trolley. Members of the welcoming committee were Reg Hayward Jr., second from left; Ed Mallek, on his right; Art Roberts, standing on trolley steps; Ald. H. M. Diggon, bareheaded with hat in hand, and Walter Walker, to Ald. Diggon's right. At extreme left is District Governor Ben Hazen, and fourth from left, with top hat, is the president of Kiwanis International, J. Belmont Mosser.

Ninety anglers braved 15-foot waves and a gale during an all-night fishing contest at Sandgate, Kent.

Key figures at the 31st annual Pacific Northwest Kiwanis Convention, now in session in Victoria, are J. Belmont Mosser, left, of St. Mary's, Pa., international president of Kiwanis, and Ben H. Hazen of Portland, Ore., governor of all Kiwanians in the Pacific Northwest district.

Monoxide Poisoning, Collision Of Planes Swell Eastern Deaths

TORONTO (CP)—An aircraft crash that killed four people and the discovery of three bodies in a rattletrap car Sunday night increased eastern Canada's total of violent week-end deaths to 23.

There were three drownings and five deaths from automobile accidents, including in the total, a Canadian Press compilation showed.

The week-end also saw two hunting fatalities—one of them the shooting of Kenneth Derring, 45, a prominent U.S. sportsman. Derring's death, near Truro, N.S., was the first death in Nova Scotia's 1948 hunting season.

Benjamin Weir of Schuylerville, N.Y., was charged with manslaughter after the shooting of Derring, despite a coroner's jury verdict of accidental death.

The opening of the eastern Ontario duck hunting season resulted in the death of 17-year-old David Hutchison of Prescott, Ont., killed by a shotgun blast when he dropped his gun.

CORN ROAST ATTRACTION

The car containing the three bodies was found just inside a bush near Elmvalle, 10 miles north of Barrie, Ont.

Police tentatively identified two of the men as Gordon Bonnell, 27, of Toronto, and his 21-year-old brother, Earl.

Members of the Bonnell family said the two brothers left Saturday, planning to attend a corn roast near Elmvalle.

Police believed the death were caused by monoxide poisoning. The aircraft collision occurred 600 feet above the Cartierville airport near Montreal.

Dead: Robert Carlson, an R.C. M.P. constable who was pilot of one of the planes; Rene Lanthier of Montreal, manager and chief instructor of the Montreal and Laurentide Flying Club, pilot of the other aircraft, and Miss Yolande Lemire and Gilles Audet, passengers in Lanthier's plane.

The planes were said to be heading in for landing on the same runway when the mid-air collision occurred.

Mr. King Revisits Tomb Of Pasteur

PARIS (CP)—Prime Minister King on Saturday marked a 20-year anniversary.

The 73-year-old Canadian leader paid a quiet visit to the tomb of Louis Pasteur, French scientist, at the Pasteur Institute. He was accompanied by his secretary, Edward Handy.

Twenty years ago Saturday, while in Paris on League of Nations work, the Prime Minister placed a wreath on Pasteur's tomb.

Evacuate Berliners, Urges British M.P.

LONDON (AP)—Richard Crossman, Labor member of Parliament, proposes that the western powers offer to fly all the 2,000,000 or more Germans from their sectors of blockaded Berlin.

He wrote in his column in the Sunday Pictorial today the air lift could carry out 20,000 persons a day.

"We should announce that we are ready to fly out of Berlin every single German who wishes to come to western Germany and help build it up as a part of our democratic western union," Crossman wrote, contending evacuation of civilians would leave the west "in a far stronger position to decide on our own terms" whether to keep troops in Berlin.

Seattle Sweeps Pair To Gain Coast Finals

Seattle is in as one of the finalists in the Coast League's Governor's cup playoffs, but Los Angeles and Oakland are still slugging it out for the other spot.

Seattle took a pair from San Francisco yesterday, 8 to 4 and 7 to 4, to win the series, four games to one.

Seattle combined timely hitting with the relief twirling of Bob Hall to complete the fall of the second-place Seals. Hall, relieving in both games, gained credit for both wins, allowing only one hit over five innings total and benefiting from late Raimier rallies. Bob Johnson paced Seattle at the plate with four hits and four runs batted in during the twin bill.

At Los Angeles, the pennant-winning Oaks clubbed the Angels twice 6 to 3 and 23 to 15, to take a three-two series lead.

TWO GRAND SLAM HOMERS

That second game saw the Angels twice score six runs in one inning—with Jimmy Ostrowski hitting two bases-loaded homers—to take what appeared to be a commanding lead.

But the Oaks came back in the last three frames with five, seven and four runs. Oakland used seven pitchers. Los Angeles six. The Oaks rapped out 27 hits, including two homers by Cookie Lavagetto and one by Les Scarcella.

The Angels pulled a triple play—Billy Schuster grabbing a liner, stepping on second and tossing to first sacked Ed Lukon—otherwise the score might have mounted even higher.

The Oaks probably will shoot Will Hafe (14-10) tonight in the attempt to clinch the series. Dewey Adkins (17-11) is on tap for the Angels.

Button-Size Deer To Be Weighed In

Members of the Victoria Fish and Game Protective Association are reminded that weigh-ins for deer of button size may be made at Knott & Elford's Service Station and Sylvester's U Drive.

The gold button goes to the hunter bringing in a deer of 180 pounds or over, a silver button for one of 150 to 180 pounds, and a bronze button for a weight of between 130 and 150 pounds. For the largest deer weighed in a diamond will be inserted in the button.

Hunters must be members of the association and must have a

Young Cougars Spank Goblins In Grid Tilt

A better drilled and better conditioned Cougar grid machine, composed of only the younger players on the team, Saturday afternoon outlasted the Oak Bay Goblins, junior champions, to walk off the field with a 29 to 6 victory over Wally Smith's proteges.

The youthful Goblins surprised their senior cousins in the early part of the game and after spotting Lou Mogul's crew a touchdown at the start of the second period roared back with a major score of their own to knot the count and minutes later took the lead at 6 to 5 when Bud French was rouged behind the goal line.

But as the game wore on it was evident that the Cougars were not to be denied. Their line plays were by far the most damaging while Bud French was a brilliant ball carrier all afternoon.

Prevaricator Equals Record In Mile Victory

ALBANY, Calif. (AP)—Prevaricator, equalling Equipoise's world record for the mile, Saturday won the $15,000 added Golden Gate mile at Golden Gate field.

Hemet Squaw was second and Shannon II, the Australian importation, third.

Prevaricator, owned by E. O. Stice and Sons, was timed at 1:34.25. Equipoise set the standard at Arlington Park June 30, 1932.

The favorite, Mafostra, from the stables of R. C. Graham, Vancouver, finished fourth. Mafostra, with Johnny Adams up, took the early lead with Prevaricator a close second. They raced that way until the head of the stretch when Johnny Longden, formerly of Taber, Alta, took command with Prevaricator and beat off a stretch bid by Hemet Squaw.

Youthful Jockey Killed At Woodbine

TORONTO (CP)—Willard Abrams, young Toronto jockey, was killed Saturday when pinned under a fallen horse during the steeplechase race on the closing day of the Ontario Jockey Club meet at Woodbine.

Rice Cake went down with Abrams at the first jump and lay in the path of the running horses as they completed their next circuit of the field. A first aid man dragged Abrams from the track. The jockey died soon afterwards.

Five C's Score Win Over The Rest

League champion Five C's defeated The Rest in the season's final cricket match Saturday. The Churchmen put on 106 for five wickets as compared to their opponents' 102 all out.

George Payne's sparkling 48 featured the Five C's scoring. Charlie Pugh contributed 25, Griffin 14 not out and Harper 13. Shanks of the Albions was high bat for The Rest with 27.

Williams, Musial New Major Batting Champs

CHICAGO (AP)—Ted Williams enters today's dramatic Boston-Cleveland pennant playoff as the American League's 1948 batting champion.

Through yesterday's games, the Red Sox better had posted a .370 mark, highest made by an A.L. batting king since 1941. In that year, Williams won the first of his four-hit crowns with a phenomenal .406. He slammed .356 in 1943 and won with .343 last year.

Today's playoff will count in player statistics for the season, so Williams will have a chance to add another point or so on his average. At the same time, his closest rival for the batting honor, Cleveland's Lou Boudreau, will be trying to narrow his secondplace margin, which now has reached 18 points. Boudreau slipped two points to .352 during the week with only six hits in 19 trips. Williams jumped two points with seven blows in 16.

Home run honors went to Joe DiMaggio of New York with a total of 39. The Yankee clipper also drove in the most runs, 156. Tommy Henrich, his teammate, was tops in runs scored with 140 and tied Washington's Ed Stewart in hammering triples, each with 13.

Boston's Jack Kramer continued to hold the best pitching percentage with 18.5 for .783.

Umpires Selected For World Series

CINCINNATI (AP)—The umpires for the 1948 world series were announced Saturday by Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler.

Two National League arbiters and an alternate, and the same number from the American League were named. They are:

Veteran Nick Metz Retires From Hockey

The Metz brothers were removed from the will-they-or-won't-they play-this-year list last night.

Conny Smythe, Toronto Maple Leafs manager, said that Nick, who signed with the Leafs way back in 1934, had definitely decided to retire.

But brother Don would report to the Leafs in November, after the birth of an expected addition to the family. He probably will go to the Leafs' American League farm club, Pittsburgh Hornets.

The Wilcox, Sask., boys were the targets of railbird speculation when neither reported to Leafs for fall training this year.

Annette Dionne, one of the famous five from Callander, Ont., thinks Alex Kaleta of Chicago Black Hawks is a very rough man.

And she laid down her box of pop-corn long enough to applaud vigorously when Kaleta got dumped on the ice.

Cleveland-Boston Sox In First Playoff For American Pennant

"Sudden death" confronts Cleveland and Boston Red Sox today. The Indians and Red Sox are scheduled to clash in Boston in a one-game do-or-die playoff for the championship of the American League.

This unprecedented American League event came about yesterday when the Indians and Red Sox finished the regular season in a flat-footed tie for the pennant.

The Indians began the day's activities a game ahead of the Sox but dropped a 7 to 1 decision to Detroit Tigers while the Red Sox mauled the defending world champion New York Yankees 10 to 5.

Both Manager Lou Boudreau of Cleveland and Joe McCarthy of Boston, refused to reveal the identity of their starting pitchers for today's deciding game.

Best guess is that either Ellis Kinder, a righthander or "Lefty" Mel Parnell will work for the Red Sox with Denny Galehouse a darkhorse.

Boudreau said, "My starter will be Bob Feller, Gene Bearden or Bob Lemon. There will be no announcement of my starting pitcher until he steps on the rubber." There's an outside chance that Bob Muncie may get the nod.

This is the first time in its history that the American League has had to stage a playoff to decide a pennant.

No matter which team wins today the world series will open in Boston Wednesday with the National League's champion Braves entertaining the American League winner.

FELLER FAILS

Bob Feller was entrusted with the job of nailing down Cleveland's first pennant since 1920 before 74,181 paying customers at Cleveland yesterday, but the big righthander just didn't have it.

Eagles, Alberni To Meet In Feature Of Basketball Opener

Opening basketball games of the season will take place at the High School gym Wednesday night starting at 7.30 with the feature attraction set for 9, it was announced by league officials over the week-end.

In the feature contest, Eagles, last year's intermediate A squad, will meet Port Alberni in a senior A exhibition game, while at 7.30 Brentwood Aces will tangle with Chinese Students in a senior B men's game.

It was rumored last week that Eagles may combine with the Y.M.C.A. club this season, but officials of the "Y" club would neither deny nor confirm the rumor when questioned.

Archie McKinnon, coach of Canada's swimming team at the recent Olympic Games, will toss up the first ball to officially get the season under way.

During the between-games intermission the Eagles' clown band will perform and 12 members of the Pro-Rec gym class will give a tumbling display.

St. Louis Browns, 10 to 5, in the first game of a doubleheader. The second game was called at the end of eight innings with the score tied at 2 to 2 because of darkness.

The Braves tuned up for the world series by trouncing the New York Giants 11 to 1.

Although beaten 4 to 3 by Chicago Cubs, St. Louis Cardinals clinched second place as Brooklyn Dodgers also lost 4 to 2 to Philadelphia Phillies. The Dodgers, defending National League champions, finished a game behind the Red Birds.

Cincinnati Reds, behind the two-hit pitching of Johnny Vander Meer, shaded Pittsburgh Pirates 1 to 0. The triumph enabled the Reds to wind up in seventh place, a half game in front of the Cubs.

Chicago Hawks Shoot For Third Or Better

By BRITT JESSUP

NORTH BAY, Ont. (CP)—President Bill Tobin calls his Chicago Black Hawks to finish "third or better" in the coming National Hockey League campaign.

As training sessions drew to an end for the team which finished a hopeless last in the six-team race last year, the energetic Tobin proclaimed: "If we can pick up where we left off last season we'll give them all a run."

He recalled some of the troubles which plagued the club last year, particularly early in the season. Chief was the broken leg suffered by Billy Mosienko in the N.H.L.'s annual all-star game. This cost the Hawks the services of the fleet little rightwinger for most of the season.

The team would up as a much more potent aggregation after signing Roy Conacher, who was late rounding into form after refusing to sign with New York Rangers, and after big Charlie Conacher took over as coach.

TOUGH TRAINING

Coach Conacher, graduate of the tough hockey school of Toronto Maple Leafs, drove the Hawks through a rigorous training schedule.

If the team has a potential weakness, it's in the goaltending. Young Emile (The Cat) Francis of Regina has been going all-out to prove he belongs in big time. He is getting a battle for the goal job from Al Rollins, who helped Edmonton Flyers win the Allan Cup last season. Definite choice of a netminder isn't expected until the Hawks open their campaign Wednesday, Oct. 13, against the Red Wings at Detroit.

For scoring power, the Hawks will rely mainly on the "Flying Forts" line they acquired in the famous "five-for-two" deal which sent Max Bentley and rookie Cy Thomas to Toronto Maple Leafs. The line is so named because all three—Gus Bodnar, Bud Poile and Gaye Stewart—came from Fort William. Bodnar and Stewart are former rookie award winners.

There is tremendous scoring power, too, in the line centred by Doug Bentley with Roy Conacher and Mosienko on the wings. Put together late last season, they bagged 131 scoring points, mainly on Bentley's 20 goals and 37 assists. Other forwards include Metro Prystai, Adam Brown, dangerous Alex Kaleta, George Gee and Red Hamill. The veteran Hamill will serve as the club's chief penalty killer, a role in which his long experience and aggressive play will pay off.

For defence, the Hawks have four hard-hitting performers—Bob Goldham and Ernie Dickens, obtained in the same deal as the Flying Forts, and Ralph Natrass and Bill Gadsby, youngsters who gained valuable experience last season. Two likely-looking rookies may get into the club roster—defenceman Joe Conn and forward Don Slater.

Golds, Douglas Tire Register Wins In Intermediate Soccer

Opening games Saturday in the Intermediate Football League saw Victoria Golds and Douglas Tire score wins. Golds marked up a hard-fought victory over Oak Bay 3 to 2 while the Tiremen turned back Saanich Indians 6 to 1.

Pairs of goals by Denny McGee sparked the Golds. After McGee had fired the

34 Teams To Compete In Local Cage League

Thirty-four teams have entered the various divisions of the Victoria and District Basketball Association, it was announced by Tommy Carson, secretary of the association, today.

Topping the entry list is the men's senior B division with 10 teams and the boys' intermediate B section with five squads.

The men's senior A league will have four teams, Y.M.C.A., K.V.'s, Eagles and Pro Patria.

Teams in the men's senior B league are: Chinese Students, All Blacks, 5th Regiment, Island Art Metals, Brentwood Aces, Canadian Legion, Esquimalt A.A., Mt. Tolmie Merchants, Alens and K.V.'s.

Spencers' Victoria College and Elks will compete in the intermediate A section with Chinese Students, K.V.'s, Warriors, 8 Aces and R.C.N. in the B division. Junior boys' clubs are Esquimalt A.A., Elks, Tillamook and Mt. Tolmie Merchants.

Only one senior A club is entered in the women's section, that being the Cece's U-Drive entry. Eaglettes are the lone club in the intermediate A division with Hudson's Bay and Comets in the senior B loop. Hot Shots, Hep Cats and Esquimal will form the intermediate B league with Bomberettes the sole club in the junior circuit.

CAIN PRESIDENT

At yesterday's meeting of the Vancouver Island Basketball Association at Nanaimo Wilf Cain of Duncan was elected president for the ensuing year. Jock Gillatt of Fairbridge Farm School was appointed secretary-treasurer. Other officers include Bill Moore, vice-president; past president Fred Bishop, council member of B.C.A.B.A., Tommy Carson, delegate member.

The meeting was informed as to clarification of birth dates for registration purposes.

Meeting of the B.C. Basketball Association will take place in Victoria Oct. 24.

Next executive meeting of the Victoria branch will be held at the Y.M.C.A. tomorrow night at 5.15. Entries will be formally accepted at this meeting while the question of turning down some of the senior B applications will be brought up and acted upon.

Although it is the oldest continent geologically, Australia was the last to be occupied by white men.

A's Sell Harmsen To Twin Falls Club

Sale of right-hand pitcher Bill Harmsen to Twin Falls of the class C Pioneer League was announced today by business manager Reg Patterson of the Victoria Athletics.

Patterson also disclosed that outfielder Charlie Balassi and pitcher Del Owens had been moved up to Augusta of the class A South Atlantic League.

Citation Boosts Track Earnings To $744,650

NEW YORK (AP) — Citation took jockey Eddie Arcaro for another joy ride Saturday, and the great Calumet Farm three-year-old champion ambled home to win the $108,800 Jockey Club Gold Cup.

A crowd of 40,000 for Belmont's closing day program jeered when the management announced before the race there would be "in" and "place" wagering only.

In winning his 15th race in 16 starts this year, Citation slammed out in front at the outset of the two-mile grind, opened up the lengths as necessary, then galloped home with eight lengths to spare.

C. V. Whitney's Phalanx, victor in the race a year ago easily was second best, 10 lengths before the Andes Stable Chilean horse, Beaufort. The time, 3:21.35, was the same as Phalanx's 1947 clocking.

Citation's win was worth $72,700, and shot his two-year earnings to $744,650, more than any horse ever before earned in that space of time.

Toronto Noise Law Covers Many Things

TORONTO (CP) — Most Torontonians haven't suffered as the Great Dane owner did who has just paid a $50 fine because his dog barked too loudly.

The 1939 Toronto anti-noise by-law cover a lot of sounds.

The ordinance has not been strictly enforced—"the chief constable doesn't have enough men"—but it's on the books.

It includes items like these: Annoying canaries, noisy street cars, rattling bicycles, home repairs—such as hammering shingles between 6 p.m. and 7 a.m.—loud radios, phonographs and musical instruments, unmuffled motors (including motorcycles), disturbing horn-blowing and bell-ringing.

When Toronto citizens protecting the peace and quiet are calling a cop to put an end to such disturbances, they'd better be careful. Crying, shouting or loud speaking in a public place is also against the law.

The churches are not exempt. The ringing of Christmas carols on an evening is taboo.

The matter has an academic tinge. The city's legal department admits "there are so many violations you really can't enforce the law."

The use of asbestos can be traced back to ancient times. It was used for wicks in the lamps of vestal virgins, and as cremation cloth by the Romans.

Opium smoking began in China in the 17th century. By the 20th century it was estimated that 27 per cent of adult males in China smoked opium.

Ted Lyons Quits As Chicago Pilot; Onslow Takes Over

CHICAGO, (AP)—Ted Lyons has quit the last-place Chicago White Sox. His resignation as manager ends a 25-year active career with the club, one of the longest in major league history.

Charles Comiskey, 22-year-old heir of the baseball dynasty, last night announced the appointment of Jack Onslow as Lyons' successor. The 59-year-old Onslow moves up from the Sox Memphis farm club after guiding the Chicagoans to second place in the Southern Association this season.

Young Comiskey said Lyons had refused a position in the White Sox farm system.

"Ted doesn't want a desk job," said Charles, who used to sit on Lyons' lap in the dugout as a child. "He wants to stay active in the game and will start shopping for a new spot."

He replaced Jimmy Dykes as White Sox manager in 1946.

Win Boxla Playoff

MONTREAL, (CP)—Backed by the sensational goal tending of Doug Flavel, Hamilton Tigers scored an easy 13 to 4 victory over Cornwall Flyers Saturday night in the first game of the best-of-three eastern Canada senior lacrosse finals.

The second game is slated for Cornwall tonight.

Hamilton, the Ontario Lacrosse Association champions, held a wide margin of play throughout and ran up an 8 to 1 lead in the first two periods over the Quebec Lacrosse Association titleholders.

The winner of the series will meet New Westminster Adanacs, western Canada champions, in the Mann Cup finals.

St. Paul Wins Way Into Little Series

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—St. Paul Sunday won the right to represent the American Association against Montreal in the junior world series by defeating Columbus 5 to 3 in the seventh and deciding game of the loop's final play-off series.

The junior world series will start Tuesday night in St. Paul with the Apostles meeting their sister club of the International League. Both St. Paul and Montreal are Brooklyn farms.

Tips On Golf Rules

By ROBERT FOULIS
Tip No. 19
STROKE PLAY MUST NOT BE STOPPED

Question: A player in a stroke competition on reaching the first green finds he has left his putter behind. He sends his caddy to the club house for it. In the meantime two couples pass before he puts.

Answer: The player is disqualified for stopping play. R. and A.

"And in case a ball shall be driven into a hole or road, so that it cannot be played out, then in that case it shall be at the option of the player, to play the ball where it lies, or to take it up and throw the ball back at least six yards, and to allow his adversary one stroke for so doing."

Stroke play was invented at last. But instead of the player being penalized for an unplayable ball he had to "allow his adversary one stroke" which smacks of match play. The language of the links has indeed changed since 1759.

FALL COMES TO FLETCHER'S

Yes... it's fall. By the calendar, September 21 was the official date. By the weather, there's that feel in the air. There are furnaces to check, there are leaves to rake, yes and there are new clothes to buy. That is where "Cec" Fletcher's Men's Shop, at 753 Yates Street, can help you. Suits, there are more than 60 of them at Fletcher's, and that's a lot of suits. All the latest styles, for the conservative taste and for the college man, tweeds, worsteds, gabardines, they are all on display. Topcoats, there's a matching selection, from the new commando weave of enduring quality to the gabardines, west of England cloths, covert cloths and camel hairs. It's a wonderful display, and in tune with the new fall season, ready to give you that choice you want. Whether you have to reach for the bus rail or duck your head through the door, you'll find the fit for you at Fletcher's. Don't forget hats and accessories at Fletcher's, too, there's just everything in smart wear for smart men at "Cec" Fletcher's, 753 Yates St.

Calgary Edges Riders To Remain Undeclared

Nothing, they say, succeeds like success.

And that's the way it was in Canadian football Saturday.

The leaders of the country's three major leagues all rolled to victory, building up their respective holds on the top spots.

Two of the leaders—Hamilton Tigers of the Ontario Rugby Football League and Calgary Stampede of the Western Interprovincial Rugby Union—maintained their undefeated records.

Tigers trounced Windsor Rockets 39 to 3 and Calgary won 12 to 11 over Saskatchewan Roughriders who always seem to lose their games in the last quarter.

Ottawa Roughriders, atop the Interprovincial Union, drubbed Hamilton Wildcats 25 to 6 and moved two full games ahead of the pack.

Montreal Alouettes pinned the third straight loss on the Dominion champion Toronto Argonauts to the tune of 17 to 8, putting the two clubs in a second-place tie in the Big Four.

Another second-place tie developed in the O.R.F.U. Sarnia Imperials knotted it up with Toronto Beaches Indians by beating the Toronto club 12 to 5.

SPAITH STARS

Quarterback Keith Spait again was the man of the hour in Stampede's seventh straight win which practically eliminated Saskatchewan from the playoffs. He pitched two touchdowns passes—one of them in the final quarter. Saskatchewan had scored on a Johnny Cook-Sully Glasser pass in the second quarter to go into the lead.

It was practically a one-man show for Howie (Touchdown) Turner as Ottawa overpowered the Wildcats. Turner picked up 12 points—10 of them on two touchdown runs, totaling 120 yards. Bob Paffrath and Bob Young each added a major score. Saskatchewan only touchdown came when Paul Peterson intercepted a pass and raced 90 yards to set up a touchdown buck of one yard for Jim Oldenburg.

KROL INJURED

Montreal's victory over Teddy Morris' scullers left the Argos with three star backs on the injury list. Royal Copeland had already hurt his knee and Saturday's game sent both Joe Krol and Rod Smylie to the bench with knee injuries.

Red Noel, who spent last season with Saskatchewan Roughriders, picked up Alouettes' first touchdown by recovering a wild Argo lateral. Bronco Reese, former Chicago Bear fullback, galloped 30 yards for another on an intercepted pass. Steve Memeth added a placement, two touchdowns and a single. Argos scored their only major in the final period at the end of a sustained 72-yard march when Frank Dunlap passed to Jack Wedley.

Fabulous Frankie Filchok was the leadoff man on four of Hamilton's six touchdowns against the hapless Rockets.

Aga Khan's Entry Wins French Race

PARIS (Reuter) — The Aga Khan's Migoli, brilliantly ridden by British jockey Charlie Smirre, Sunday scored a victory for English racing by winning the valuable Prix De L'Arc De Triomphe, over 1½ miles at Longchamps.

Migoli had the measure of the field of 14 in his great finishing burst. He beat Nigral with the French Derby winner Bay third.

The race was worth nearly $20,000.

two third division engagements. Oak Bay Wanderers blanked Joint Services College 9 to 0 and J.B.A.A. humbled H.M.C.S. Naden 27 to 0.

After Jerry Main's try had moved Wanderers into a first half 3 to 0 lead over Joint Services the Wanderers rolled over for six more points in the final period. Irving Young went over the line for three points and Jim Mills added another try following a long kick to touch on the one-yard line by John Olson on a penalty attempt.

The Bays-Naden affair saw the former pack too much experience for the sailors. The Bays held an 8 to 0 edge at halftime and went over for 19 additional points in the second half. Wilson scored one for Bays and converted two others for a good afternoon.

In the two third division matches Oak Bay Wanderers defeated J.B.A.A. 8 to 3 while Canadian Scottish and H.M.C.S. Naden fought to a scoreless deadlock.

First division clubs will usher in their season Saturday. Schedule of games for the week will be decided at a union meeting tonight.

Trade Expert Coming From Trinidad

Thomas Grant Major, Canadian government trade commissioner at Port of Spain, Trinidad, will visit Victoria Oct. 8 to interview manufacturers and exporters interested in trade with Trinidad, Barbados, Windward and Leeward Islands, French, Dutch and British Guiana and the French West Indies.

He will make his headquarters in Victoria at the trade and industry department. Appointments may be made through that office.

A graduate of McGill University and veteran of the First World War, Mr. Major held several important posts in the commercial intelligence service at Port of Spain in 1945. He was chief of the commercial intelligence service's foods division from 1939 to 1945 as well as chief of the British West Indies shipping division from 1942 to 1945.

Man, Wife Injured

William Bond and his wife, 2537 Savannah Street, were taken to hospital Sunday night with facial and head cuts, following an accident in Saanichton.

Saanich police report that Mr. Bond was driving south through the village at 8 in the evening when the car swerved and hit a light pole.

Constables W. Mycock and E. Anderson attended and took Mr. Bond to the Veterans' Hospital and Mrs. Bond to Royal Jubilee Hospital. Their respective conditions are reported as good.

Damage to the auto is estimated at $250.

Lions' Carnival Raised Sufficient For Club Charities

The Lions Club's Fall Carnival held Friday and Saturday nights in the Bay Street Armories was described today by Clarence Johns, president of the club, as a tremendous success.

Approximately 8,000 people turned out to see the carnival during the two evenings it was in operation, Mr. Johns estimated. Although financial returns have not yet been computed, proceeds of the carnival will be sufficient to enable the club to continue its charity work during the forthcoming year, he said.

Mr. Johns expressed the thanks of the club to the public for its generous support.

Luckiest man to attend the carnival was Earl S. Lehman of 637 Niagara Street, who won the top door-prize of a combination radio-phonograph for guessing how many seeds were in an exhibited pumpkin.

Mr. Lehman guessed 607. When club officials cut the pumpkin open and sorted the seeds out, they found Mr. Lehman to be only one seed out—there were actually 606.

Contest guesses ranged from 0 to 300,000,000.

Relax Plumbing Rule

The plumbing trade is being advised by the city building department that because of shortages of vent piping, certain requirements of the plumbing by-law are being relaxed.

Each job will be judged on its merits, plumbers are being informed, and they are asked to check with the department before "roughing the job in."

Veterans Open Convention With Parade To Memorial

Canada's oldest veterans' organization, the Army, Navy and Air Force Veterans in Canada, will open its Dominion-wide convention in Victoria with a parade to the Cenotaph Wednesday.

Headed by H.M.C.S. Naden Band, the parade will start at 11 from the organization's Wharf Street headquarters. All members of the Victoria branch are requested to take part in the parade. Medals and berets will be worn for the occasion.

Approximately 300 delegates from all parts of Canada, including officials from the Department of Veterans' Affairs, are expected to attend the convention. Delegates will be welcomed to the province and city by Acting-Premier Herbert Anscomb and Mayor Percy E. George.

Leslie Mutch, M.P., parliamentary assistant to Veterans' Affairs Minister Milton F. Gregg, will represent the minister at the convention. He will be accompanied by Deputy Minister Dr. Walter S. Woods, and other senior D.V.A. officials.

Other speakers who have been invited to address the convention are Bishop H. E. Sexton and Maj.-Gen. G. R. Pearkes, V.C., M.P.

Preparations for the convention were made by the B.C. provincial executive with the assistance of Brig. J. Sutherland Brown, C.M.G., D.S.O., of Victoria; T. R. Wheadon, president of the Victoria branch; R. K. Woods, first vice-president; Jack Rivers, secretary-manager, and Mrs. Fred Carver, president of the Victoria ladies' auxiliary.

Dr. Hugh A. McLeod, minister of First United Church here for the past 11 years, will leave tonight to take up his new post as pastor of Knox United Church in Winnipeg.

A leader in church affairs in British Columbia, Dr. McLeod is president of the B.C. Council of the United Church of Canada and past president of the Victoria Ministerial Association.

He received considerable publicity a few years ago when he attacked gambling and vice in the city from his pulpit.

Friday evening the minister was tendered a farewell reception at the church.

Mrs. R. L. Cox and Mrs. P. McKechnie presented Mrs. McLeod with a gift on behalf of the ladies' organizations of the church.

Dr. J. B. Munro addressed Dr. McLeod in Gaelic in presenting him with an inscribed wallet.

Charles, youngest son of Dr. and Mrs. McLeod is already in Winnipeg attending the University of Manitoba. Two other sons, Donald and Hugh Jr. are in Toronto, the latter studying for the ministry.

The League of Roses will meet in the Canadian Legion Hall, 717 Blanshard Street, Oct. 8, at 8. Reeve Bert Thomas of Esquimalt will give an address.

To Pave Fairfield Road This Year

Paving of Fairfield Road from Memorial Crescent to Foul Bay Road will be completed this year if Ald. J. D. Hunter, city public works committee chairman, has his way.

And he usually does in matters of this kind, although he is up against the weatherman this time.

The alderman said today the project is to be speeded and he is optimistic that it will be done before the end of the year.

Meanwhile paving of Cook Street from Fackson to May Streets should be finished in 10 days. Here again the weatherman has the upper hand, as rain slows work.

That section of Fairfield west of Foul Bay Road is ready for paving, and the lower end of the street now is being graded.

"The job would have been finished practically by now if we had not had such a rotten summer," Ald. Hunter said.

Last Rail Contract Awarded To Fancher

Fancher and Fancher, California street rail removal company, has been awarded the third and final contract to rid Victoria's streets of streetcar tracks.

Ald. J. D. Hunter, city public works committee chairman, said today the firm was the only one to submit a bid on the work remaining to be done.

This amounts to about 66,000 feet of permanent track and 23,000 feet of temporary track, and the contractors have told Ald. Hunter they can complete the job in about two months starting next spring.

The company soon will complete its second contract, and will close down operations for the winter months because of the difficulty in paving rail strips in continued cold and wet weather.

Dr. Hugh A. McLeod Leaves Tonight To Take Up New Post

Dr. Hugh A. McLeod, minister of First United Church here for the past 11 years, will leave tonight to take up his new post as pastor of Knox United Church in Winnipeg.

Bids Asked For Project On John Hart Highway

The provincial public works department has called tenders for the construction of 26 miles of the John Hart Highway to link Prince George and the Peace River district.

The project is between Parsnip River and Azouetta Lake and bids must be in the hands of the public works minister by noon Oct. 25.

Indicating that the project will cost well over $1,000,000 the department is asking a deposit of $150,000 by each tenderer.

Flower Baskets Stay For Kiwanis Parley

There'll be something missing from downtown streets on Wednesday morning . . . the hanging flower baskets are to be taken down.

City parks officials said today workmen will begin "operations removal" at midnight Tuesday and will have the 600-odd baskets of flowers and plants stowed away at Beacon Hill Park nursery by the time most of Victoria is awake Wednesday morning.

The flowers in the baskets have made a good showing this year despite the wet weather, parks men stated, and there has been little damage by vandals as in past years.

The baskets are being left on the streets until the close of the International Kiwanis Convention.

Blasting In City To Be Governed

City Solicitor A. J. Patton is drafting a law governing blasting operations in the city.

The regulation will halt unauthorized blasting. A permit will have to be taken out with the city building inspector before the fuse can be lit.

Fees for blasting will be based on the cost of the quantity of rock to be removed.

Applicants for permits will be required to post a bond to take care of any damage caused in the operation.

Plan Changes To Building By-law

A proposed amendment to the city building by-law prohibits occupancy or use of a new building or structure until a certificate has been issued by the building inspector.

The amendment provides for a temporary certificate of occupancy to be issued for use of a portion or portions of a building prior to the completion of the entire structure.

A further amendment sets the minimum floor area of a new structure at 750 square feet.

Revolver-Carrying Pair Released On $500 Bond

Robert G. Smalley, formerly of New Westminster, and William Smith, Victoria, each charged with carrying an unregistered revolver, were released on $500 bond apiece and their case adjourned until Oct. 12 in city police court today.

Magistrate H. C. Hall ordered the adjournment in order that the two youths can attempt to settle their problem with the probation officer.

People Of Canada And U.S. Must Develop Spiritually

Fear of the consequences which may result if North Americans continue to concern themselves only with the material things of life, was expressed by J. Belmont Mosser, president of Kiwanis International, in an address to the opening session of the 31st annual Pacific Northwest Kiwanis District Convention in the Royal Theatre this morning.

Dealing with materialism, Mr. Mosser said: "We are building art galleries without any art; high schools without any faculties, and beautiful statues without any heads."

The people of this continent must develop spiritually, he said.

Turning to international politics, Mr. Mosser said it was essential for Canada and the United States to remain strong in view of the campaign of fear being waged by totalitarian nations abroad.

"The moment has arrived when every adult must devote a major portion of his time, effort and resources to public affairs if freedom is to be maintained. Only by shaking our apathetic attitude toward public affairs can we be certain that the ballot will have proper leadership, and that government will remain the servant of the people."

Attacking Communism, Mr. Mosser likened Communist activities in Canada and the United States to the work of termites on the foundation of a building.

The leader of some 190,000 Kiwanians and head of some 2,900 Kiwanis clubs, Mr. Mosser called for all freedom-loving citizens to guard against this dangerous pest.

Concluding, he said: "Of all the words in the dictionary that we are privileged to use, there are only two of importance. When we lose those, we will face our darkest day. . . . The words are God and Liberty."

No Hallowe'en Grant

Because no provision was made for such a grant in this year's estimates, City Council is unable to make the usual annual Hallowe'en grant to the Victoria and District Parent-Teacher Council, city officials reported today.

'Anna Karenina' Royal Feature

With Vivien Leigh and Ralph Richardson starring in Alexander Korda's production, "Anna Karenina" opened today at the Royal Theatre, bringing to local moviegoers the full, rich flavor and mighty impact of one of the greatest love stories ever penned.

Best-sellers may come and go, but it isn't likely that any will surpass the timeless and universal appeal of the immortal Tolstoy classic which plumbs the depths of human emotions with a revealing insight that has rarely been rivaled in all literature.

The story of Anna's desperate gamble for one great love, and the laughter, heartbreak, violence and destruction that came in its wake, is unfolded with an overwhelming power and poignancy that makes this a rare and unforgettable film experience.

'The Tender Years' Showing At Atlas

There's a rich and exciting screen experience in store for local moviegoers with the opening today at the Atlas Theatre of "The Tender Years," a Twentieth Century-Fox release which stars Joe E. Brown in his first dramatic film role.

Here is a picture that carries a new emotional thrill with one of the greatest and best-loved comedians of all time emerging as a wonderful new screen personality. For Brown's dramatic debut, Producer Edward L. Alperson has provided him with a grand vehicle, a rich, heart-warming story, tender and poignant, yet carrying a terrific impact.

Gene Tierney, Rex Harrison At York

For the past few months, word has been slipping out of Hollywood that one of the most delightful comedy offerings of the year was about to be unveiled by Twentieth Century-Fox. When mention was made that Gene Tierney, Rex Harrison and George Sanders were the principals in the cast of this lighthearted, yet strangely emotional bit of screen entertainment, it left no doubt that Twentieth Century-Fox had taken R. A. Dick's best-selling novel "The Ghost and Mrs. Muir" and had turned it into an enchanting film fare. Moviegoers will see it at the York Theatre today.

DOMINION THEATRE
Playing the dual role is considered an unusual triumph for an actor in Hollywood. Ever since John Barrymore flashed across the screen as father and son in the epochal "Don Juan," the dual part has been coveted as an unusual test of acting ability.

Eleanor Parker, who stars in the twin characterization from Wilkie Collins' great mystery novel of the mid-19th century, "The Woman in White," currently at the Dominion Theatre, now joins the thin ranks of actors who have portrayed two characters in the same film.

CARRIES EQUIPMENT FOR NEW MILL—One of five large diesel electric engines is loaded aboard a Manning Timber Products Ltd. lumber carrier at government drydock Thursday for shipment to the company's new mill at Zeballos. The lumber carrier is one of two former U.S. army landing barges bought by the company for conversion.

Joan Crawford To Do Movie About Schoolteachers

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Joan Crawford, who has worked long and successfully enough in Hollywood to talk back to anyone, has this to say about movie producers:

"They're afraid to take chances. This is the most competitive business in the world. But when producers follow each other and are afraid to do something different, that's bad for the industry. I'm afraid people will start staying away from the movies and will go out and buy television sets or some other form of entertainment."

The cause of this outburst is Joan's pet project, "Miss O'Brien." She's mighty hepped up on the story. She tells how it came about:

"I happened to see some school-teacher statistics that were being prepared for a magazine article. I was appalled. I mentioned to a radio writer that something should be done to tell the public about it. He told a friend who wrote up a synopsis of a story about a schoolteacher."

TELEPHONED FROM CHICAGO

"I took a manuscript to New York and read it on the way home. I got off at Chicago, telephoned Jerry Wald and told him I had to do the story."

The producer also enthused, but Warner bigwigs thumbed down. Too big a risk they said; message pictures don't make money.

Joan wheeled the studio into taking an option on the story, but the option was soon dropped. So the actress took over "Miss O'Brien."

"I've had many letters from schoolteachers begging me to make this film," she says. "Some of them would break your heart with the shocking conditions they describe. The low pay, the social restriction and the discrimination against teachers is a national disgrace."

Joan put a writer to work on the script and engaged Curt Bernhard as director. She'll do the film right after "Flamingo Road" and right now she is talking to four studios about sale of the package—star, script and director.

at the Capitol Theatre Theatre. For the first time in a screen career in which Ladd has faced and overpowered all kinds of enemies in various parts of the world, he finds himself his worst enemy, and the most difficult to overcome.

'Fabulous Texan' Stars Pat Knight

Patricia Knight, wife of actor Cornel Wilde, portrays the role of Josie in "The Fabulous Texan," Republic feature coming to the Rio Theatre today.

On the first day's shooting at the studio, she received a huge bouquet from her husband—red and white roses. He also visited her on the set. Miss Knight endeavored herself to cast and crew by her naturalness and sweetness.

'Voice Of Turtle' Warner Film Hit

Warner Bros. picturizations of Broadway's long-run smash hit, "The Voice of the Turtle," with Ronald Reagan and Eleanor Parker in the leads, opens today at the Oak Bay Theatre. Irving Rapper directed this film version of the John van Druten play. Eve Arden, Wayne Morris, Kent Smith and John Emery play other important roles in the delightful comedy-romance.

Sugar Workers Win Boost

VANCOUVER, (CP)—Wage increases ranging from 12 to 30 cents an hour have been granted more than 400 employees of the British Columbia Sugar Refining Co., Ltd., it was reported here.

J. C. Emary, representing the International Union of Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Employees' Union (C.I.O.) said the new agreement also gives the employees three more paid statutory holidays a year, bringing the total to nine.
